ANTS not the Subjects of Christian Baptism:

OR

nd Twenty Arguments, plainly proving t Infants ought not to be Baptized.

AND

he Practice of Baptizing Infants, is not only arrantable by the Holy Scriptures, but a manifontradiction to them, and also to the Sense Practice of the Primitive Christians in the and purest Ages of the GOSPEL,

ALSO

odfathers and Godmothers, or other Suretys for erformance of a Covenant made for Infants at Baptism, are Unscriptural and consequently trantable.

DUBLIN:

by Sylvanus Pepyat, Bookseller in Skinner-Row. 1732.

^{5. 21.} Prove all things, and hold fast that which is Good.

r is not read in the Holy Scriptures, nor may be proved is not to be received as an Article of Faith or as any effary to Salvation. The Sinth of the 39 Articles of the Church is was not known in the World the two first ster Christ, in the third and fourth it was apby a F E W, at length in the fifth and follows, it began to obtain in divers Places; and re we observe this Rite indeed as an antient, but not as an Apostolical Tradition. Curcellans's the Christian Religion, Book 1. Chap. 12. Sett. 4.

d be observessed to may ji bave fo , who i e way

n from

t of that ideration
t their of d and a

51. 6. uredly,
t nothin owledge
r Truti

pinion, Jary, t

fible toufly appealed be made be and the function are the function as the func

TO THE

READER.

HEN the Words of Solomon are duly confider'd, Prove 23.23. Buy the Truth and sell it not; We shall be oblig'd to own, that Truth was in the Judgment of that great and wise man, a Jewel of such inestimable worth, that is shou'd be purchased at any Rate, and parted with at none. We observed, that our blessed Saviour whilst be was here on Earth, ressed the highest esteem for Truth, showing us, that it was part of from Heaven to become a Witness in it's Favour. John 18.37. may justly inser, that on our part it is highly reasonable, that the have for Truth, should bear some Proportion to that Esteem we proportion is himself the very Truth of God, and whose Design and Dessormable to the Will of his glorious Father) to guide us poor More way of Truth, unto whom it would be very pleasing, that we did to but also acknowledge all Truth.

n from Rom. 2. 8. 9. that Indignation and Wrath shall be the of that man, who is contentious and disobedient to the Truth: a ideration of which, should engage the thoughtful to all very cautitieir opposing of Truth, they be found to fight against God himself, and will espouse the Cause of it. Isaiah 59. 13 to 15. Ier. 9.

51. 6. Acts 5. 38. 39.

wedly, all the knowing among men will allow, that Truth is but the nothing can be true which is in contradiction to it; and it should owledged with Concern, that in our most diligent and best design'd a Truth, we are most miserably divided even in those Determinati-

e may probably think do most justly result from them.

pinion, all Parties will agree in this Conclusion, viz. that it is ex-Jary, that every Man should be fully persuaded in his own Mind, not condemn himself in the thing which he allews. The the Light in us may be Darkness, we should highly esteem, puly apply ourselves to all probable means of Knowledge, for sear ald be fallly persuaded; for every bonest man accounts himself obm his words and Actions to the persuasion of his Mind, as believifie and a great evil for any man to be unfaithful to bis own Light; rs of Religion wherein the Conscience is more especially concern'd to contrary to the Sentiments or Language of Conscience or the best he has. Besides it behoves us to be more than ordinary careful, ids be not fally persuaded; because the Persuasion of the Mind is be Judgment, either upon a right or wrong Foundation, either Error. If the Jugment be fixed upon a right Foundation, and ub, it will be to our greatest Advantage. But if it fixes on a tion and is wrapped up in Error, it will be to our greatest Detriment; Since it is evident that the Government of the Affections feated in the Judgment, so that where the Judgment is sound, and ion and Will are both in subjection to it, the man who thus submit the Government of a sound Mind, or a well-enlightned Understand dutted into the most acceptable Words and Actions.

A found Mind or Judgment, is a Mind which is rightly persuade great worth, and much to be esteemed; it is of greater worth than add than the whole world, in regard it yields a greater Prost than the Possession of the whole world could do. And surely it must that a found Mind or Judgment, is made up of the Knowledge of no man can be supposed to have a well persuaded mind, who is no with the Truth.

It may be admitted, that a man whose Judgment is very unson finely, may adorn his Language, and dress up his Sentences with all which lyes in Rhethorick it self; yet surely all he says will be worthless Stuff, yea and much worse where it slows not from a suffer in the Judgment of every wise man it will amount to no mone well clad or dress'd up in a handsome Garment, set off to the best that it may infinuate it self into the good opinion of those, who the shall receive it.

Most certain it is, that surther than a man's words agree with the Truth, tho' he should speak like an Angel, and artfully maketh had Cause; all his fine words are but as the sounding of Brass, a Cymbal; and if what he doth he done knowingly, with a destitute that he is justly to be accounted one of the worst of men.

Every ben-st man of a well inform'd Judgment will readily so this Truth, viz. That it is much better for a man to embrace the dress'd up in Rags, than to countenance Error adorn d with then Garments which the utmost art of man can put ubon it.

When any man from a real Concern for his own Happines, so Inquirer for Truth, it will behave him with the greatest Soliday dwell up in the Inquiry, as one that is in love with, and has an to find it: and not like Pontius Pilot to drop the Inquiry as son it: For indifferency in a matter of such moment is very dial Mind of Christ, and will be a Lett to the Entrance of such a Sould dom of Glory, in the Day when the righteous Nation which keep God shall enter in. See John 18 37. Isaah 26. 2.

It is not every one can fay with the Apostle Paul 2 Cor. 14 should every one strive, to have it in our Power to say with him do nothing againfi, but for the Truth.

Those men who accustom themselves to think upon the most may sadly observe that that most excellent and valuable thing abut a sew Friends, but a great number of Adversaries; probably to presently bring its Favourers to worldly Glory, the God of Truth had Honour better and more lasting for them. And it is much be to the generality of Mankind are such dim-sighted Creatures, that able to see afar off, or take a pleasing view of that Glory, to the bring those in the world to come, who are the unseigned Locality

Schomon among other things remark'd, that many courles is com Davio is, be ned bi d turn nen fro

, 18

r, and

hat a elus ( s in his befe too

b, the ery evi

n. I ey faw
Adm
b the a en as he infiball his who it i

ir Comp it rife Eaces too m iendship r that n vain Choice, r

be in F
; becau
feen, th d world
r which

brist is a may be constant of the constant of msiderat m Recep Preposses ruth a. at the Rich had many Friends, whereas the Poor, (notwithstanding much better than the Rich) was at the same time bated of his , and that because of his Poverty. And it may be one of our Obserhat as it was then, so it is now and likely to continue until the Fash-

David was in his Exile, and hunted by Saul as a Patridge upon the u, be bad but a few to side with him; there were but a very few. ned his righteous Cause; but when Saul was dead, and divine Prosturned the Scale with a smile upon him, there came vast numbers pen from all Quarters, to put him upon the Throne. Even fo, when elus Christ, the Lord of Life and Glory, the Son of David and Son linhis State of Humiliation, be was had in Esteem but by a very efe too were for the most part of the poorer or common fort of People: h, the Honourable and Learned of the Nation of the Jews, rejetted my evilly entreated him, because of the meaness of his Appearance m. They looked upon him as a Root springing out of a dry ground, ey faw not that Comelyness which might attract their Love, and Admiration of bim: For the Honour and Glory of this world. b the ascendant in their Affections; walking more by Sight than en as we are all too inclinable to do.

be infinitely wife God purpolely so orders it that as his Son did not. pall his Truth make any great Figure in this World, that it may pho it is that embraces it for its own sake, and most affectionately on its own Recommendation; that bereafter it may be manifest and Angels, who it is that doth both own and honour it in its Men who all not upon such a base and ignoble Principle. ir Compliments of Congratulation and Praise to it, when like the it rises in Glory; but despise it when it is generally despised. Faces from it when it is covered with dismal Clouds of Disbonour. e 100 many by Thousands, by Millions among men, who are too endship of this World, who will not believe that it is at enmity rthat he who is a Friend of this World, is an Enemy to God. vain for us to expect that multitudes in our Day should follow Choice, rather to suffer Affliction with the People of God for Truths be in Friendship with this World, and enjoy the Pleasures of Sin because they have not an Eye to the Recompence of Reward, feen, tho of an eternal Continuance, are at too great a Distance d worldly minded men, who seek Honour one from another, and which comes from God only. Men, who cannot believe, that brist is greater Riches, than all the Treasures of this World.

may be certain, because the God of Truth who cannot lye, bath 1. 2 Pet. 2. 2. That some men would be covetous, and that covetousness, the way of Truth would be evil spoken of, and grace: Through means whereof men's minds have been prepofjudices against it, and also against the faithful Professors of it. nsideration, it's not to be expected, that Truth should meet with m Reception from any, but those whose minds are freed from Prepossessions.

ruth as it is in Christ Fesus, may meet with Acceptance from (uch nn ade ın ( nit

uft of I

noun

ofit

th all 1 be 8 a 60 3730re. be bell who t e with nake th Brals, a desig ien. endily fe race the th the m ines, In Solidity bas an ry as form very diag h a Souli kich keep

Cor. 13 with bim the most : e thing cal robablybed Truth have ch be tott teres, that ory, to co ed Lovers y courted t B fach Persons, whose minds are unbyass'd and pre-dispos'd to an bones partial Inquiry after it: As believing that he who finds Truth, so choicest and most enriching Treasure. A Treasure which makes him ally rich in Time, and compleatly rich in Eternity. And therefore a solves to make a faithful Judgment of all that shall be offered on him of every Question, and that nothing shall determine his Judgment up Point, but clearness of evidence; who will not pay a Regard to any sy surther than they shall be well supported by the word of God, and Reasured thereby, even such as carry the Force of Conviction to an unprejudich so that where and when ever Truth shall revail it self upon the send dence not to be gainsay'd, tho it should walk the Streets in Chains of and with a Crown of Thorns upon its Head, he will have his Arms a open to receive it.

To such men as these the Truth shall be welcome, and to the In and to the God of Truth, shall such men as these be welcome: For a are men of honest Principles and so rarely to be found, that the Lord shall have them in the highest Estimation, as more pretious thank Wedge of Ophir. They shall know the Truth, and the Truth which of it known, shall bring them to everlasting Glory, and eternally makes

John 8. 31. 32.

Among the many Truths of God, which from time to time have been en of, through the Coveteousness of worldly and evil minded men, the and Practice of Water Baptilm, may challenge the first Place, can number the almost innumerable Corruptions which this great of the Son of God hath suffered since the first Institution of it, both a Subject and Manner of its Administration.

Astonishingly strange are the Divisions which have been, and sills Christian World about it. To instance only in a sew Particulars. some who affirm, that Insants of eight Days old or less are the Subjust Others as positively assirm (and that not without the strongest Reason) fants are not the Subjects of it at all.

Some affirm, that (prinkling a little water upon the Face, is the This way runs Rome and the most of the Nath Administring it. rope, fince the thirteenth Century and second Councel of Revena. are, who as positively affirm, that the true way of Administring this is by covering the Party Baptized all over in the Element of Was spay went the whole Christian Church (faith Dr. Whithy) Hundred Years: This way went the Church of England (faith) Floyer) until the Reign of James the first: This way goes the Gin es to this very Day, as both Dr. Whithy and others inform 11, according to Dr. Jeremiah Taylor Bp. of Down and Conner, I to the Sense and Law of the Church of England (bow contrat) Practice is) as will plainly appear from the Rubrick in King Education Time, if Sir John Floyer may be depended upon. And agreeable Opinion of many of the greatest Writers of the Church of English Arch-Biftop Tillotfon, Dr Barlow Bp. of Lincoln, Dr. Burnet bury, Dr. Fowler tp. of Gloffer, Dr. Jeremiah Taylor B and Connor, Dr. Wm. King Bp of Londonderry and late Arch Bo Dr. Cave, Dr. Towerson, Dr. Hammond, Dr. Edwards, befe retty Godj Surei ans

rto

btl

bth

ham

, be

it,

effire

e Ac

ar.

earns, earns tion to tiries (pel: proba

Article be Pra This an Pr will h ftates ther b ts to co upon are I

Truth

erous t

finding negati
ments.
at fog
is said ne man se Argu
Judgme
Mistal

very dee (as I as Truth eft a fin

e o

m bot t up

ay Arg

eason

udic'l

Fort

s of Di

ms an

be Tru

For the rd Fel

than th

bich on make t

ve keen

en, the Place. great 0

both a

ed fill a

ulars. he Subject

Reason)

is the

the Nation na. Of ring this

t of Wate tby) for (faith 8

s the Gitt

rm us,

Conner, II contrary

ing Educati

ag reeable to of Englan

Burnet

ylor B

Arch Bil

wards, or rton Knatchbull, Sir John Floyer, Mr. Mead, Mr Burket, pole, and a Vast number besides of none of the smallest Reputation; bthem this way go the Anabaptists, and that because it is the way the Holy Scriptures direct them. A way of which they fee no cause am'd, in the Practice whereof they are under no necessity to creep into being modestly confident, they are able by fair Reasoning, in the Deit, to engage any man who is disposed to controvert this Point with offirm that the Sign of the Crofs, Crame, Spittle, Salt, &c. should be Administration of Baptism, this way runs Mystery Babylon, and are too nearly related to ber; others there be, who as fliffly affirme hele things are unwarrantable by Holy Scripture: this way go Proretty generally, and in which they agree with the Anabaptists, some Godfathers and Godmothers, others will have none --- Oh wonder-Surely all these Divisions should call for great Searchings of Heart in ans, and the most diligent Search of Holy Scripture: Especially in all earneftly long for unity of Faith and Affections among them who protion to the Son of God. All such should be most seriously intent in iries for Truth, upon all Questions relating to this great Institution fel: And the rather because through the means of these Divisions, probable a great number of our Countrymen have been hurri'd into Contempt of it, and the most publick Protestations against it; mak-Article of their Profession, that Water-Baptism is a useless thing, e Practice of it should he for ever laid afide, as a weak and beggarly This way goe the Quakers, whose mistakes of Judgment about an Practice are much to be lamented.

will be granted that Truth upon all possible simple Questions, is but bat nothing can be true which is in Contradiction to it; if the eput, is Water-Baptism an Ordinance of the Gospel or not? the stated is capable of receiving no Answer but one in Truth: And iber be, it is, or it is not. And we must all own that if it be not, is to continue it; but if it be, the Danger attends the Neglect upon the supposition that it is an Ordinance of Christ; if the , are Infants the Subjects of it, or are they not? the Answer cubich Truth must either be, that they are, or that they are not. If they erous to deny it them; but if they are not, the Danger lyes in giv-finding out of TRUTH upon this single Question, whether it negative or the affirmative Answer, is the Design of the folments. In the which, if I am miftaken, as it is not impossible I at so great a Diffance from that remarkable Spot in Italy, wherein is said only to center, I say if I am mistaken, it is my bearty Dete man or other may discover my Mistake; may give such Anse Arguments, and advance such others, as may be sufficient to Judgment that I am mistaken, while I have an opportunity of Miftake.

very deed I am right, and the Truth lies on the negative fide of (as lat present believe it dotb) then do I as beartily desire, that Truth may accompany these Arguments with his Blessing to every inquiring 10.

oti

th ndi

H

the

Ten

d no

enti

bem

its,

the l

edby

fuci

n im it. ar

any

o the

the

Bapti

fere

and ni

accou

lude, Chant

ng of

and H

ce ma

fua fior

irit of

ed in t

be W m to t

ge of i n to 1

fit.

em to

OF 202

betber

Chrift .

e care

8

inquiving Soul, that they may carry such clearness of Evidence as me roughly convince all who oppose me, that the mistake stands on their shat this I am sure of (if I can be sure of my own Intentions) that it knowledge of Truth I aim at, and thereby the Glory of Christ and

and Neighbours Good.

I am of Opinion, I shall have few who will differ from me upon the viz. that whether I be right or wrong in the present Question, yet I as to speak as I think; and am (even as all other men) under a neasing low the Persuasion of my mind, to speak the I ruth in my Heart to my bour, and honestly express my inward Sentiments; for by so doing le were) turn my self inside out, fairly shewing what my Persuasion is, a Grounds thereof, to the Intent I may put it into the Power of those as me well, to convince me or at least to perform the part of a kind Neish endeavouring to convince me, that my mind touching this Point is me persuaded.

Into whose hands these Arguments will pass after they pass out of know not, nor doth my Ignorance in this Particular give me the less ness. I know they may probably fall into the hands of some whise is, to judge before they think. From such men as these I expect now that a severe Sentence shall be speedily pass'd, and perhaps the whole condemn'd to the Flames before the half of them is read.

But where they fall into the hands of such, who will not pass Judge til a fair Tryal and just Examination of all Evidences; from all suppression of the suppression of their inward Sentiments, and will believe the Judgment will express their inward Sentiments, and honestly arise from their of their Minds, although a fter all, their Sentence may probably be the

of a mistaken understanding.

I can safely declare both with Lip and Pen, that I have a very to gard for all fober men, whose way of thinking differs from mine; the establish'd Church, or any Denomination of Dissenters from ber, biterian, Independent or Quaker, who are good natur'd men, and abborrence of an angry perfecuting Spirit, who can look pleasantly whose Persuasion of Mind differs from his, and would not burt a Neighbour's Head, were it ever so much in his Power to do it . I as always lies open to, and who refolves he will never fife Convid chearfully yields to Truth in all its Appearances, and with Pleasure Mistakes of his Judgment, as speedily as they come to his Known yet at the same time is most faithful to his present Conceptions, and profitute bis Conscience to any fleshly or worldly view, in concealing fion of his Mind, or refusing to make a Confession of that Faith w which is flx'd in his Heart, thre' a flavish fear of disobliging and beartily resolves to the utmost of his Power to please God ratha and will not content himself with the Profession of what he believed without making a Confession of it; heartily designing the Bunst ber to whom he makes that Profession.

Such a man as this I take to be an honest man, altho' I may mistaken in his Judgment, perhaps in many Particulars.

But as for all such of what Denomination soever, who are ille cannot look pleasantly upon or entertain one favourable thought ters of Religion or Conscience distent from, or are of a contrary Mind on; who distinguish themselves (as some do) even in the Pubit, as well ivate Conversation, in speaking evil of those who differ from them, as if a secret Pleasure in bespattering their Characters; especially the poor pilts, loading them with all the Reproach wherewith they can possibly them; moved by the slaming Zeal of a missinform'd and missinguided inding, which transports them not only beyond the bounds of Christianity, a Humanity also. Such an Antiscriptural and Roman Catholick like shewed it self in a solemn League and Covenant, made not many Tears since against the Arminians, Independents, Anabaptists, &c. I not come into the same way of Thinking with them: such beady, high intlemen as these, by what name soever they are call'd, the' I am bound hem we'l, to pity the greatness of their Ignorance, and the madness of its, and to be always ready to perform any good Offices to them; yet the Baptists in general, may with Justice despise them, even as they edby them.

such men as these are mistaken upon any controverted Point, it is n impossibility to sasten Conviction on them: For the Furiousness of their Passion, will not suffer them to any Subject, as reasonable men ought to do So that they can neithotheir own, nor speak to the Edification of other mens understanding. I therefore I cannot expect, that these Arguments against Insants Baptism; can have the desir'd Effect: For it is highly probable, they rerve as sresh Fewel to the Fire already kindled in their unsanctify'd and make it blaze and stame the more; but should it he so, I shall not accountable, for Truth must be desended.

ude, as all things of this kind going into the World must be submitchance, or the Lot which shall be assigned it, so must this. I reng of any of my Readers, but that which day one of them is bound to viz. that they will bring these Arguments to the Test of Holy and Reason tightly informed, and to weigh the whole in the even an inhyas d and impartial Judgment; and then I am content ce may be at their Light within shall threst, that is, according to suasion of their minds, and in which they have my good Wishes, that irit of God whose Office is to guide well disposed Souls into all Truth, them to the most just and righteens Judgment: the mean while ed in the Assurance of my honest Intentions in sending these Arguhe World.

m to those who know the Truth, to confirm and establish them in ge of it.

s ma

tt it

nd n

n this

Ian

ceffit

to my

n is,

pole a

Neigh

is no

out of

he leaft e whole

t no oth

s Judge n all su

ment the

be the L

a very to mine;

n ber, i

afantly 4

burt 4

do it : Si

Pleasuren

s Knowl

tions, and

ncealing

t Faith o

iging an d rather l

be believes h

be Benefit

oo' I may

bo are ille

m to those who know not the Truth, but are willing to know it 3 ir understandings, to assist their Enquires and help them to the sit.

em to those who know not the Truth, and are regardless whether or not; contenting themselves, in a state of Indisferency, as not bether Truth or Error be uppermost; to awaken them to a Godly Christ and their own Souls, in a diligent Search for that, which to carefully searched for than thousands of Gold and Silver,

I fend

Notions, which have made the earliest Impressions upon them, and that the in which they have been educated, are pre-resolved they never will know thing in Opposition to it; I say my Design is to leave them without and now, that the Lord Fesus may have Glory, and that TRUS sairly shine forth, is the unseigned Desire of sier in a large of the party and the state of the said

The same of the state of the state of the same of the

Curteous Reader,

a real Friend to Truth, and a be Well Wisher to thy Soul,

Ofwald Edw

s an an Chan the chord of Faoth wo of n Into enter h God the 1 erson of th

the A

SANGED CONTRACTORS

Infants not the Subjects of Christian Baptilm.

ONTENTS.

Arguments.

bat Re Il kne hout 8 UII

ıl,

Edw

an outward Sign of d Grace. page 1 to 4. m a Sacrament at it an Oath of Allegi-Christ .4. to 6. n the Necessity there those who receive a nt should converse by th the things which fy'd thereby. 6. to 8. n Infants being inof Faith and Repenoth which are justly of Persons to be 8. to 10. n Infants want of enter into a Coveh God. 10 & 11. the Necessity there Favour. ersons to answer a the inacceptable- 37 to 39.

l Acts in Religion

Arguments.

om a Sacrament as it which spring not from Faith 13. and 14. and Love. 8. and 9. From the Ufeleffnels of Baptism to Infants, both with respect to this, and the World to come. 22.

to 31.

10. From the want of a Warrant from the holy Sciptures for the Practice of bap. tizing Infants. 31 and 32.

11. From the want of 2 Precept in Scripture expresy commanding it, or Precident expresly shewing it to be the Practice of holy Men mentioned therein, as also the want of Confequences fairly arising from Scripture in it's 32. to 37. 12. From the Practice of science to God in baptizing Infants, being con-11. to 13. trary to the holy Scripture!

#3. From

Arguments.

13. From the holy Scriptures commanding an Action in the Party to be baptized, and speaking preceptively to them. 39 to 42.

14. From the baptizing of Infants being contrary to the Sense and Practice of the primitive Christians in the first and purest Ages of the Golpel. 42 to 45

15. From it's leading Chriftian Communities into Confusion, purting it out of their Power to know whether feveral of their Members were ever baptiz'd or ot. 45.46.

16. From its leading Protestant Communities to countenance the Superstitions of the Romis Antichristian Bap-46 to 49.

17. From its putting Chriftian Communities under a Necessity of casting away short of true Co Arguments.

0

t

in an y t.

the

hd

OVE

th 2

s a d m

as h

Rig

info

white

n th

which

and an i

circut

r the

Right

n be t to

Law. it be Sayin

at of Heav

Kight

inferr

fayir

more

Christian Discipline.49 18. From its putting sons baptiz'd under a fity of growing won worfe after Baptifm, than better, as the Son require them to do. ta 53.

19. From its puttin sons under a Tempta take up their Satisfac what was done for t Infancy, without ever ing whether right or

20. From its leading tian Communities in confistency with the

21. From its being ry to the Doctrine Prophets and all the in that it makes Re on to confift in to 69 to 77.

Some remarkable Parts of the Con

Odfathers and Godmo-that they could no Godtathers and Goding without it, mills by Scripture or Reason. 14 Serfe of our Low hy were the Invention After Infants Bi of the 5th Century. 9. to 16. brought in, the !

I fants Bapti m was first those Times & brought in on a Supposition to 22. to Nichodemus, John our Lord's Words, p. 31.

nts.

ne. 49

ittiug

er al

WOT

tilm,

ne Scr

) do.

outtin

emptal

atisfac

e for i

at ever ght or leading ties in ith the

s being

Etrine 0

all the

ikes Re

t in lo

ue Co

be Con

could no t, milta

our Loid

mus, Joh

riants Ba

p, the lg

imes gi

the Salvation of Ining without either of aments, is not to be made evident, as ythe Mercy of God the Merit of Christ, nd 23. to 25.

ovenant which God th Abraham and his s a spiritual Covemade with true as his spiritual Seed

p. 67 and 68. Right to Baptism inferr'd from that which Abraham's n the Covenant of which God made and them. P. 34. an it be inferr'd circumcifing of Int the Law, more Right to the Lord's n be inferr'd from t to the Passover Law. P. 34 it be inferr'd from Saying concerning at of such is the Heaven. P. 34. Right to Biptilm inferr'd from the faying that they

rd's Supper alfo, as thence may be inferr'd their g they could not be Right to the Supper. p. 35.
thout it, from a mif- Nor can their Bish.

Baptism be inferr'd from the Apostles baptizing Housholds more than we may conclude their Right to the Lord's Supper, from whole Hounolds eating the Passover under the Law. p. 35.

The great Poffibility of Men's being milaken about Confequences. P. 33

The God of Order hath appointed a beautiful Order to be observ'd in that Obedience we pay to him, each Duty following the other in a regular Succession; as first of all must come Conversion. or Regeneration, after that a professed Faith in Christ, next in proper Place and Order comes Water Baptism. p. 26 and 27.

Some Remarks on Church of Scotland's Catechize laying, that the Children whole Parents are both, or but one of them Believers. are in Covenant, and have a Right to Baptilm. to 62.

Remarks on the Church of Scotland's Catechize saying none out of the visible Church ought to be baptized, untill they profess Faith in and Omore than from bedience to Christ. p. 65.866.

Intants

nt

not a lable that is of the Contents.

The state of the s

of the state of the

the laster me

me .

ets o ntec 1; 1 quen ame Conf er B but

acra ere rtie w, race

> ha an

he (

ts } is a ue, a goir

o I

2 1

nts not the Subjects of Christian Baptism.

me Arguments against Infants supposed Right to APTISM.

Argument the First.

but Water Baptism is a Sacrament, then Infants are not the Subjects but Water Baptism is a Sacrament, therefore Infants are not els of it.

nted by a'! Parties to the Question, that Water Baptism is a t; wherefore nothing in the Argument can be deny'd but quence of the major, in Defence of which I further argue. cament be an outward Sign of an inward and spiritual Grace, Consequence of the major is True.

acrament is an outward Sign of an inward and spiritual erefore the Consequence of the major is True.

orties do allow that Water Baptism is a Sacrament, so they but that a Sacrament is an outward Sign of an inward and race, and therefore they can deny no part of this Argument Consequence of its major, for Proof of which I further have not that inward and spiritual Grace, whereof a Saan outward Sign, then the Consequence of the major is its have not that inward and Spiritual Grace, whereof a is an outward Sign; therefore the Confequence of the ue, and so the whole is true as was to be proved.

going Argument may otherwise be explained and stated o Person has a right to Water Baptism, but such a Pera tight to it under the Notion of a Sacrament, B 2 R

But a fittle Infant has no right to it under the notion of a ment; therefore a little Infant has no right to Water Baptifu at

Since as before observed, all l'arries to the Question area that Water Baptism is a Sacrament; it is thence evident, no this Argument can be deny'd but the minor, in support of whether argue

Those Persons to whom Water Baptism cannot be admin so as that it should be in them, an outward Sign of an inwas spiritual Grace; they are such Persons, as to whom it can administred under the notion of a Sacrament.

But Water Baptifm cannot be administred to Infants, as ano

i

e o ce ne

bG

ro

Was

be be

Dbe

en, v mle rcife ound

a be ittle

heir l Diritu

harn

rinci

ily O

God (

lign

ich in

: All

cant a whom

utwas leth an

11. 6

er is m

Aler B

only l

tward is joyn

the .

y is t

the Sible Si

Sign of an inward and spiritual Grace.

Therefore Infants are such Persons, as to whom Water Bath not be administred under the Notion of a Sacrament.

In Defence of the Minor Proposition of this Argument, a the only part of it that will be deny'd, I further argue.

Those Persons who in the Judgment of discreet thinkin cannot be supposed to have an inward and spiritual Grace, a Persons as unto whom Water Baptism cannot be administred a ward Sign of such Grace.

But Infants are such Persons who in the Judgment of thinking Men, cannot be supposed to have an inward and Grace.

Therefore Infants are fuch Perfons as to whom Water Ban not be administred as an outward Sign of Such Grace, as we proved. And fince Baptism is a Sacrament, and a Sacrame outward and visible Sign of an inward and spiritual Gr cannot be administred to them as a Sacrament, it will then dent, that Infants are not the Subjects of Christian Bipli very clear Demonstration. See the Church of England's Cat a Sacrament, and the Assembly of Divines Confession, Paragraph 21. and their larger Carechife on the Parts of ment, and consider how the spiritual Relation, or Sacramen doth subfift, which is in every Sacrament between the Sign Thing fignified; and judge whether either of the Partson ed a Sacrament, when it is by it felf alone, and without the which it bears a spiritual Relation, and with which it is Sacramental Union; and then judge how Water Baptiff Sacrament to an Infant, in whom there is not that inward tual Grace which is one part of the Sacrament, and wh join'd in a Sacramental Union with the outward and fel compoles or fremes the Sacrament. See his Grace M late Arch Bishop of Dublin in his Inventions of Man in the !!

wrote when he was Bishop of Derry p. 175 on the Parts of a If the Doctrine of Anabaptism, with which we are full doth not make us better Protestants than others of our convention of Sacraments. We contend not for, but protest Reman Number Seven, and give our Consent they be

ofal

m at area

00 of wh

admin

inwa

t can s an or

r Bapti

ent, W

hinkin

race,

Ared a

nent of

d and

ter Batt

e, 26 W

acrame

] thend

in Bapi

nd & Catt

effion,

Parts of the Sign

Parts cathout the

Baptilm

inward

and wh

and fen

im the Mi

arts of 18

of our Co

Particular protests

they be

two: at the fame time observing, that the' we account aments to be outward Signs of inward Grace, yet we must n all outward Signs of inward Grace to be Sacramente. reely affirm this, which I suppose will be deny'd by none. aft of Obedience which a Child or a Servant paye to the of a Father or Mafter, are outward Signs of that inward whence those Acts of Obedience Mould flow; that is to Love to, or Fear of the Father or Mafter, or elle (which either Love to, or Fear of God, who comman is that Obein like manner every Act of Obedience which a man yields of the Commands of God, are outward Signs of that inte or Principle of Action, which hath its Seat in the Heart nerated, from whence that Obedience (if right and ac-Gol) doth certainly arise; to witt an holy Love to, and rof God: So Prayer, reading the Holy Scriptures &. wird Signs of inward Grace, and as truly fuch as Baptifin be not Sacraments.

wholy Principle, which may be justly call'd the Spring of Dedience, may possibly have a Place in the Hearts of men on, who are capable of exercising their Reason, and of reamselves into a Compliance with the will of God; on reise depends this inward Principle, which is a spiriound of Faith, Fear and Love, neither of which can pose a being in an Heart void of Understanding Wherefore ittle Infants are without Understanding or the Power of heir Reason, it is most evident they are without that inspiritual Grace, whereof Water Baptism is an outward Sign, harmless and happy Infants, are without Faith, Fear and inciple or Spring of spiritual Motion, without which all ly Obedience signific nothing, nor indeed doth a just and God seek for any such Principle in them.

lignifie Prayer, Reading, and hearing the Word of God? th in God, without Love to him, and a holy filial : All these things and whatever else possibly nameable cant and will never recommend any man to the divine whom there is not that inward Grace, whereof these urward Signs, See Gal. 5. 6. In Christ Jesus neither Cirlesh any thing nor uncircumcifion, but Faith which worketh 11. 6. Without Faith it is impossible to please God. Rom. 14. r is not of Faith is Sin. From all which we justly infer, der Baptism be a Sacrament, it cannot be so to an Inonly be so to fuch who are capable of having that tward Sign, because in a Sacrament the outward and is joyn'd to the inward invisible Grace by a Sacramene the Affemblies Confession rightly observes, and which y is the wifest and justest Distinction which should be the outward Sign in a Sacrament, and other outble Signs of Grace which are not Sacraments; which

nit

ju

t

vn.

ry i

cr

the

irit

us

los ne I Bari

or !

nay

gme

is, a

Ped

re h

wha

hou

ilm

ves

d th

y in tak

f Al

ope f ve fu

lould

panio

hat v

o his

m al

e Sa

Oath

d the

lemn

nce t

the

Will.

1

confider'd fairly brings us to this Conclusion, that a Sacra noth e administred to an Infant, or to any irrational Cre Regard no Part of it can be to them an outward Sign of Grace, for it cannot be a Sign of what neither is, nor po be. Whence it is evident that Water Baptism cannot be red to an Infant as a Sacrament, because in such Admini doth not answer to the Nature of a Sacrament, wanting ciple Part, to which the outward Sign has a spiritual Re to which it is join'd in a Sacramental Union : and being a felf, it is at most but a Sign without the Thing fignified a we are fure the thing fignifi'd cannot be, it is a Sign of and fo in reality it is no Sign at all, and manifeftly contra Intention and Use of a Sign, which is, to fignifie some always supposes the being of that which it fignifies, quence of all which, I fay, that fince Water Baptifm is a Sacn cannot be administred to an Infant as such, it ought not ministred to it at all.

To pass on, let it be observed that as we agree upon the property of a Sacrament, to be an outward Sign of an inward we also agree in another Definition of it, viz. that it is an such as the ancient Romans took to be true to their General makes way to argue further against Infants supposed Rights from the Nature of a Sacrament, according to this or description of it.

Argument the Second.

If Water Baptism be a Sacrament, it cannot be administrated in the Confequence of the Major in this Argument willow.

ny'd, and will be secur'd as followeth.

If a Sacrament be an Oath, by which the Person who doth solemnly swear Allegiance to the Lord Jesus Christ Consequence of the Major is true;

But a Sacrament is an Oath &c. therefore the Confe the Major is true.

In Defence of the Consequence of this last Argument If it be not in the Power of little Infants to swear at the Lord Jesus Christ, then the Consequence of the Majorithms.

But it is not in the Power of little Infants to sweath Christ—therefore as was to be proved, and by which evident, that Water Baptism as it is a Sacrament or On ance, cannot be administred to little Infants, by whome can be taken, and of whom no such Oath is required, as Justice can be, since they have not the Power of mit Oath is in its own Nature a very solemn thing, the which, calls for the greatest solidity of Thought, and which, calls for the greatest solidity of Thought, and because Exercise of the Understanding; because it is a upon the Soul, the non observation of which, may be tion of the Person who takes it. Which consider it says a said suppose, that a little Infant is capable of taking a Said

Power of fuch Confideration: Surely this is highly unreaherefore fince a Sacrament is an Oath, the administring into whom it cannot be fuch, is to destroy the very nature the giving it to one, unto whom it cannot possibly be n Oath; is to make it an Oath, and not an Oath at the , which is a manifest Inconfistancy. Wherefore this Aruft fland good against Infant's Right to Baptifm, fo long nitted that a Sacrament is rightly defined to be an Oath, just and natural Import of the Word; against which the Pedobaptifts can have no just Exception, because it ry of Cheffer who was a Gentleman of none of the smallest nong the Presbiterians, in his Communicants Companion, thus acrament, p. 2d. and 3d. viz. " A Sacrament is an Oath, the ancient Romans took, to be true to their Generals: irituals or in Religion) it is an Oath of Allegiance to the lus Chrift, by which we ingage our selves to be his du-loyal Subjects.

ne Account of the fignification of the Word Sacrament, Barclay gives us in his Apology. And tho' he was neither or Pedobaptist, yet being a Gentleman of Learning, his nay be depended upon for the Sense of a Word, as well ment of another; for by how much the more indiffes, as to the fideing with either Party, by fo much, the ard should be paid to his Explication. But I suppose Pedobaptifts will dispute this Definition of a Sacrament, te hope they will deliberate upon this Point, and feriwhat Answer they would give to Christ in the Day of hould this Question be then put to them, viz. how could ilm be administred to little Infants as a Sacrament when ves had defin'd it to be an Oath, which it is obvious d the Power of taking?

y incumbent on all Mankind (I mean those who are take a Sacrament in this remarkable fense; to take it f Allegiance to the Lord Jesus: For what can any man ope for from Christ, who refuses to swear Loyalty to resuppose that a man's refusing it, is less than to refuse lould reign over him. Mr. Henry's Doctrine in his Companion, p. 68. is to be accounted very good, in which hat we must enter into a Covenant with the Lord our whis Oath; for that else he will not own us for his m all which it appears to me very evident, that no e Sacrament, but he who takes the OATH, for d the Supper of the Lord fignific nothing to any, but lemnly give themselves up to Christ, and heartily nee to him. Those Persons who are to be Baptized, themselves up to God, and then to his Church ac-Will, 2 Cor. 8. 5. Until they do this they do nothing:

Oath it is no Sacrament.

Sacra 1 Cre gn of or po ot be dmini al Rel eing a fied, a ign of 7 Contr

ntingt

Comet fies. a Sacra ht not upon th nward t is an r Gener oled Rig

d. adminif erefore

to this

ent will o rion wh us Chris

he Cont

rgument fwear Al fwear A which ! nt or Oat whoma quir'd, m ng, the & ht, and the e it is 1 may be ider'd, m Until this be done, there is nothing done which will be a to God. Consequently Water Baptism cannot be admit a Sacrament to an Infant, who wants the Power of givin up to Christ, or of taking an Oath of Allegiance to his an one is a Stranger to the Mistery that lies in Baptism, not the Power to converse by Faith, with the thing it which yet is so necessary that no man can promise himse from a Sacrament, further than he converses by Faith with is therein signify'd. Which leads me to argue further a fants Right to Baptism from the nature of a Sacrament.

Argument the Third.

F

wh

ell

rac

y

as

h. Fai

bel's

was

Fait

ffer

WO

Inels

of his nd d

A m

vor i was I

Ba

d B

ble :

upo

indee

dtoi

uppo

ith th

ruth

s Opi

heff E

Taylor

ould vice I

Rendo

e Suc

It is most ridiculous to administer a Sacrament to a lind But Water Baptism is a Sacrament.

Therefore it is most ridiculous to administer Water B an Infant.

For support of the Major Proposition of this Argumen argue.

It is most ridiculous to administer a Sacrament to one under a natural and unavoidable necessity of receiving

But to administer a Sacrament to a little Infant, is to one who lies under a natural and unavoidable new ceiving it in vain.

Therefore it is most ridiculous to administer a Sug little Infant.

As no part of this Argument can be deny'd but the Mi make it good by the following Argument.

To administer a Sacrament to one who has it not to converse by Faith with the thing fignified, is to admone who lies under a natural and unavoidable necessity it in vain.

But to administer a Sacrament to a little Infant, is to one who has it not in in his Power to conversely the thing fignifi'd.

Therefore to administer a Sacrament to a little loss minister it to one who lies under a natural and unavoid of receiving it in vain, as was to be proved. And who proves, that it is most ridiculous to administer a satisfant.

I am persuaded that all the knowing Gentlementhis Controversy, will readily give it as their Opinion, diculous to administer a Sacrament to an Idiot, at what and will account the Reason which supports the Contain Argument, as most sufficient to maintain their Opinion an Idiot is not capable to converse by Faith with the did in a Sacrament; which is certainly a good Reason with of Reason, is with the utmost Justice carry'd to Regard an Infant's want of Power to converse by said Christ in a Sacrament, is equally the same with id where the want of Power is equal, the Argument taken ich want of Power, is equally forcible against both.

which are both remarkable and pertinent to the Point in it." whoever shall content themselves with the Sign only, ut conversing by Faith with the thing signified, do receive frace of God in vain: And Sacraments (mark, Sacraments Plural number) will be to them, what Parables were to who were willfully blind, they will blind them the more; buch as they have the Shadow without the Substance, ell without the Kernal.

bostrine of Mr. Hettry I am firmly persuaded, is agreeable racles of God; for that all the Prophets and Apostles do y teach the same things, instructing mankind in this Beas Faith without Works is dead, so also are Works withha, a stinking Carcass in the Account of our Redeemer. Faith it is impossible to please God in any Act of Religion. bet's Faith which made the Firstlings of his Flock a more e Sacrifice, than the Fruits of Cain's Ground. The Harwas justified by works in receiving the Spies, but yet it Faith that saved her. Abraham was justified by works, offered up his Son Isaac; but yet it was his Faith which works acceptable, and which was imputed to him for said his Children's Salvation from that Flood, which ad destroy'd an unbelieving World. So it is Faith in the make Sacraments acceptable Sacrifices, and give them yor in his Nostrils.

was the Doctrine of the Apostles, so it was also of their Basill the great taught the same Lesson, when saying, and Baptism are two means of Salvation, nearly allied and ble: For Faith is persected by Baptism, and Baptism is upon Faith.

indeed in such sort allied to Baptism, as to be insepeto it, and that on which it is founded? How then can apposed to have a Right to Christian Baptism, more is since the latter has as much the Power of conversing the the thing signission as Sacrament, as the former:

ruth is they have no right at all.
Is Opinion and Advice in Reference to this Point is workest Estimation and universal acceptance, as mentioned Laylor late Bishop of Down and Connor in his Liberty of 223. viz. That the Baptism of Infants should be defer'd ould give an Account of their Faith. I could heartist vice might be candidly received by all the Pedobaptendom. I will use my best endeavours to enforce it, a Success to him, unto whom of Right it ought to be

Argument

C

dining it

DE 36

with the rate

a littl gument to one

iving in the state of the state the Mi

it not in to admi necessity ant, is to averse by tile Infa unavoida And which er a Sau entlement Opinion, at, at what the Constheir Opinion with the od Realmarry'd to rie by Fa Came with Argument the Fourth.

lo

m ho

ere

Beu

th

on ore

5,0 tec

hey

ad I

r by 10

Acc

prefi

all.

Gho

d no

heith what i

the (

aft, t

n wha

they for th

that P

arente

m mea

verle b le is fi

the fi

will ye But to

There are no Persons should be accounted the Subjects of Baptism, but such who are able to answer that, which the most justly requir'd of them.

But there is that most justly requir'd of Persons to be by which little Infants are not able to answer.

Therefore little Infants are not the Subjects of Water Bar To maintain the Minor Proposition of this Argument, I

Faith and Repentance are justly requir'd of Persons to be by But little Infants are not able to answer that, which in these culars are justly requir'd of Persons to be baptized.

Therefore there is that most justly requir'd of Personstotized, which little Infants are not able to answer, in confe of which we rightly say, that little Infants are not the Sub Christian Baptism.

The establish'd Church of Ireland doth certainly expression upon this Question, viz. What is required of Persons to be Ba To which Answer is given, agreeable to the Account of Testament, Repentance whereby they for sake Sin, and whereby they stedfastly believe the Promises of God, me them in that Sacrament.

Fohn the Baptist did (as do all the Baptists to this Day) Repensance of those who came to his Baptism; strictly of them, to bring forth Fruits meet for Repentance, worthy of ment of Life, and denied Baptism to those, in whom he those Fruits, Mat. 3. 6. to 12, Luke 3. 12 to 15. In like the Apostle Peter called for Repentance as a Qualification tism. Atts 2. 37. and baptized such only, who gladly recondend. The Apostle Paul in all Places preach'd Repentance God, and Faith towards our Lord Jesus Christ. Atts 20.

Whoever reads with Observation the History of the Apowill see, that these fairhful Stewards of the divine Misteries to baptize none, but such who made Profession of Faith Philips's Answer to the Eunuchs Question, What hinders tized? was, if thou believes, thou mayest; which plains that if he did not believe, his unbelief would hinder him: on the Eunuchs professing Faith in Christ as the Son of haptized him: And when the Samaritans professed Faithing trine concerning Christ and his Kingdom, he baptized the mand Women, Atts 8. 12.36 37. When the Jaylor Faith in the Lord Jesus, and his Houshold making like he and they were baptized. Atts 16. 32 33. When the Inhabitants of that City, believed the Dostrine presched by Paul, and made Profession of their Faith, they were by Men and Women. Atts 18. 8.

ets of

h the

be ba

ter B

ent, I

be bay

onsto

n confe

he Sub

press th

o be Ba

int of

in, and

God, n

s Day

trictly !

orthyof

om he

In like

cation

dly rece

pentance

ARS 20.

the Apo

lifteries

of Faith

binders me n plainly

fer him:

e Son of

aprized t e Jaylor ing like

When

inth, and the preach were bit

fe Texts of Scripture fully prove the Doctrine of the Church land and Ireland in their Catechize above mentioned to be hat Repentance and Faith are justly required of Persons to nzed, and in Regard little Infants are capable of neither, we rightly infer, that Water Baptism ought not to be administhem, but that rather it should be deferr'd until they are able in Account of their Faith . And in fo doing Christian Churchld follow the Example of the Church in Justin Martyr's may be collected from his Apology to Antoninus Pius, viz. that no believed the Doctrine which they taught, was true; afng and Prayer, they brought them to the Water and washed erein, in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Beveridge in his Exposition of the 39 Articles, on Article the these words," Our Saviour immediately before his Ascenommanded Baptism to be administred in the Name of the Son and Holy Ghoft, Math. 28. 19. His Church hath pre in all Ages requir'd a Profession of Faith in these three , of all that were to be Baptized; and therefore to prepare recumens for Baptism, she hath Rill instructed them in her ought to believe concerning each Person, which when ad learned, acknowledged and professed (either by themrby their Sureties) they were presently received by Bapto the Church of Christ.

Account of the Bishop there lies this Truth as plainly as pressed in Words, that it was the Custom of the Christian all Ages, to require a Profession of Faith, in Father, So Ghost, of all whom she consented to baptize; and that d not administer Baptism to any, until that Profession either by themselves or their Sureties. Now if it be that is affirm'd by some, that Sureties were not devis'd, unh Century, then it will follow from the Bishops Words, the Custom of the Christian Church, for four Hundred alt, to prepare her Catecumens for Baptism, by instructn what they ought to believe concerning the Trinity; they were instructed and their Judgment convinc'd, and for themselves make a Profession of their Faith, they that Profession, and not without it, admitted to Baptism. nce and Faith are Doctrines, in which the Children of arents should be well instructed before they be admitted that they may have a good Understanding and know m means, or the Miftery that is contain'd in it, and be verse by Faith with God and Christ therein, and with le is fignified thereby: Thus it was with the Christian the first Ages of the Gospel, as we have seen above, will yet further appear in due time from the fourteenth But to Proceed.

.

Argument the Fifth.

If no Person has a Right to Baptism until he first enten Covenant with God, then Infants are not the Subjects of it.

But no Person has a Right to Baptism, until &c .- Therefor To maintain the Consequence of the Major of this Argun further argue,

If it be not in the Power of little Infants to enter into a C with God, then the Confequence of the Major is true.

But it is not in the Power of little Infants to enterinto a C with God .- Therefore &c.

Every man whose flock of Knowledge is not the greatefly that a Covenant mutually agreed upon between two Partie folemn thing, as the Apostle teacheth, Gal. 3. 5. if (faith he but a man's Covenant; yet if it be confirmed, no man dil it, or addeth thereto.

When men do mutually agree upon a Covenant, they do in writing, after which both Parties can deliberate upon it, prove or disapprove and make such alterations and ame as they shall think expedient; but when it is once confirm folemn Acts of Signing, Sealing and Delivering, it must me anull'd, but by the Consent of both Parties. If either oft repents what is done, that Repentance comes too late.

The Law of God as well as the Law of man dother Covenants be faithfully kept, which shews us that they be, even as they generally are, the Result of solid Consider for great is the Concern which men have about their this World, and it would be well for them if they were citous and as heartily concern'd about the much more Affairs of the Soul, and the World to come: That above they would be most tender of a Covenant made with the which should be accounted in a special Sense sacred, the which may be the everlasting Destruction of the Soul.

Now will any man after due exercise of Thought lu a little Infant is capable of making any fuch Covenant or that it is possible for any man to make any such la it? Surely this is most apparently unsupposable, and grant, that a Covenant must be made with Christ in must be received as a Sacrament or Oath of Allegiance of God, in which the Baptized doth folemnly sweat to Subject to him; and must not we all say, woe be to him this Oath! also woe be to him who refuses to take ! to make that Covenant! See Mr. Henry's Communicant " In vain do we expect the Bleffings of a Coveni not willing to come under the Bonds of it. We mile a Covenant with the Lord our God, and into his of f' he will not own us for his Reople. And p. 51. God ! If not, I have no Part or Lot in this matter.

to feal a Covenant with God? But if I never made in remor any, b Infan Cerem to an nor o eniabl urther poffil any (of th mpoffi The 8 Wor again 1 made i

our ow

nt or c

nt of on the hat

tilo

hatl

not

bee

51.

ut y istia

foli

ot th

hat

ptif

D Bes undr

ut I

in fincerity consented to it; I shall put a Seal to a Blank, a Curse. And p. 73. "We then enter into a Covenant od when we accept his Salvation with an intire Complacen-Considence in the methods which infinite Wildom hath for reconciling a guilty and obnoxious world to bimfelf. Mediation of his Son. And p. 68. " A Covenant is mudlike that, which is between a Man and his Wife. this let us observe first (that according to Mr. Henry nt is mutual. Secondly that as fuch, it must have the both Parties, Thirdly that it is not a Covenant, in the on of a Covenant, without such Consent. Fourthly, that ebe fuch Confent, the fetting a Seal to any suppos'd Cothe fetting a Seal to a Blank. hat imaginary Covenant made for (not by) Infants, at tilm, it is most manifestly a Cypher, a mere nothing, in hath not the Confent of the Party, and concludes nothing not binding the Party to any thing, to which it would been bound by the Law of God without it. See Mr. 1. " What was done for you at Baptism, was done with-Confent, and at most made you but incompleat Christur you must be Christians with your own Confent, or else istians at all.

folidly confider'd brings us to this Conclusion, that Innt the Subjects of Christian Baptism, wanting the Power hat Covenant with Christ, which should necessarily be ptism, and withour which Covenant, as we have observed p Beveridge (on the last Argument) the primitive Church undred Years, would not consent to administer Baptism ut I proceed.

Argument the Sixth.

remonie in the Christian Religion can have any faving any, but such who therein answer a good Conscience to Infants are not the Subjects of Baptism.

Ceremonie in the Christian Religion, can have any favto any, but such &c .- Therefore &c.

for of this Argument is secured by I Pet. 3. 21. And eniable but the Consequence of the Major, in support urther Argue.

any Ceremonie of the Christian Religion, then the of the Major is true.

mpossible for a little Infant to answer a good Conscience

Therefore &c,

s Words mention'd before in his Communicants Companies again be referr'd to oiz. "What was done for you at made you but incompleat Christians, at most Christians our own Consent, but you must be Christians with your int or else not Christians at all.

Exactly

enten f it. herefo

Argun

020

Partie

ney dra oon it, id ame must no her of the late.

t they Confid their ch more at above th the L red, the Soul. ought for fuch Co e, and f hrist in Swear to to him to take the

Covena We mu

matter.

made th

In

b

b

bap

o a

T

le

lino

23 nse

mpo

in ho

en t

mpo

oly

Ther

n wi

Will

m Fa

I sha

that endin

great find

felves

Faith

) wou

utwar

Love

Truth

thing (

to his

canno

offible

of th

the I

dent !

Words, with the Doctrine preach'd by the Apostle Petrin above referr'd to, viz. the like Figure whereunto even Bap now save us, nor the putting away the Filth of the Flesh. Answer of a good Conscience to God, or as an old Translatit, in that there is the Consent of a good Conscience to God.

I must for the present account that man a Babe in under and needs that one should reach him again, which be Principles of the Oracles of God, who will suppose, that in Religion will be of any faving advantage, to which the the Consent of the Conscience, yea and that of a good of too : For thus teacheth all the Prophers, that the Hear God looks for Truth in the inward Parts, he looks to for the Heart, without which he will not be fatisfid: not as man look at the outward Appearance, nor is he for ward Performances in which the Conscience is not cond it is with the Mind we worship God, or we worship him for as he is a Spirit, he will have spiritual Worship. W dent, that it is the Consent of the Mind or Conscience which makes all Acts in Religion sweet and acceptable our Lord Jesus Christ; and without which Consent of he makes no Account of any thing we do. Read the follo of Scripture, and thence learn to get and keep a good (that in Simplicity and godly Sincerity, not with fleshing but by the Grace of God, you may do every thing you or in Obedience to him. Alls 24. 16. 2 T.m. 1. 3. and 1. 19 Heb. 10. 22.

That Man who knows what Conscience is, knows who true; and he who knows not what Conscience is, knows yet as he ought to know, but takes all his Steps in the

knows not whether he is going.

That thing call'd the Conscience, must it self either derstanding, or else is dependant upon it; which admit Infants nor Idiots can be supposed to have any Conse good or bad to God-ward; in regard they both are Exercise of Reason, and so in the want of Understant then can it be conceived that Infants more than Idiot Right to Baptism? when it is not possible for them Consent of their Conscience to Christ therein; and is nesser of Baptism consists in the Consent of the Consent evident that an Infant can have no Benefit from Baptist ther Ceremonie in the Christian Religion; but the shews the sirst to be true, and thence we must consist atter is true also.

Dr. Jeremy Taylor Bishop of Down and Conner in his phely p. 321, 322. owns that this Question was put to held at Neocestares viz. Whether it was lawful to Bapin with Child? and whether the baptizing a Woman with not the baptizing the Child in her Womb? To which

oned

Bap

esh

nfla

o Go

under

h be

ch th

Team

ks to he fo

t conce

p him p. W

ceptabl

ent of C

he follo

good O n Helhly

ng you

3. and

nows w e is, kno

s in the feither

ch admi

y Confe

nderstan

nan Idiot

or them

and if th

Conscient

m Baptil

but the

uft conclu

er in his

vas put to

to Bapin

ro which

ver in the fixth Cannon, that it was lawful to baptize a with Child, and that the baptizing of her, was not the the Child in her Womb; because in Baptism a Confession made, which Confession saith the Bishop, plainly supplerstanding and free Choice, and intimates that the baptishants was not the Custom of those Times. All which concludes in Defence of my Position, that Infants are ubjects of Christian Baptism.

Argument the Seventh.

remonie in the Christian Religion will avail any thing to but what springs from Faith in and Love to Christ; baptizing of Infants is infignificant.

te is no Ceremony in the Christian Religion will avail to any Soul, but what springs from Faith in and Love Therefore the Baptizing of Infants is infignificant. le Teneur of the Holy Scriptures doth effectually se-linor Proposition of this Argument, particularly Heb. 11.

23. and Gal. 5. 6 which consider'd, I have only to deinsequence of the Major, to which end I further argue, impossible for little Infants to exercise an holy Faith in in holy Love to God in any Ceremony in the Christian en the Consequence of the Major is true.

impossible for little Infants to exercise an holy Faith in soly Love to him, in any Geremonie of the Christian Re-Therefore &c.

will teach, that any Ast in the Christian Religion, or will avail any thing to the Salvation of the Soul, which m Faith and Love, I shall not be over hasty to receive I shall chuse rather to wish him a better understanding, that Love is the fulfilling of the whole Law, as summanding all the Precepts of the first and second Table; great Commandment being, to love the Lord our God sind and Stength, and the Second to love our Neighselves; on which two hang all the Law and the Pro-Faith and Hope without Love (were it possible to selve and bodily Righteousness, to be but as filthy to Love.

Fruth is, that our most inward and spiritual Righteousthing from God, but it is acceptable to him and reto his Favour through our Lord Jesus Christ; and Righteousness consists chiefly in Faith and Love. Who-cannot obey this great Command of the Law, to love offible he should pay an acceptable obedience to any of the Law or Gospel: And sure I am that a little the Power of loving God whom he hath not seen should be wants the Power of loving his Neighbour,

el

ho

rlo

uld

r th e fi As fo

was.

a Pr

the the

m, as Feild,

m wa

made nd th

dosius, brose, t

Tertui

necess

en the

Root in

Chur

rs; th

ovatio

thing

they rofeff

ofeffic

s or C

whom he hath feen, as being altogether unacquainted wiffer want of the Exercise of Reason, which doth or show govern the Affections, and set the inward man upon Affections, and set the inward man upon Affections and little Insant is not able to give any Obedience merther indeed doth he call for any from it; for he is than to require Obedience where it connot possibly be the Case of Insants and Idiots, whose Salvation depends any Condition, which they want the Power to comply we

The boundless Grace of God, through the Death and on of his Son, hath made rich Provision for the Salvaio innocent Infants, who never made any personal Transgrate Law; so that notwithstanding Salvation is tender'd to go upon Terms, not impossible to be comply'd with, but such reasonable; yet is no Condition mentioned in Holy Scriwhich God purposes to save an Infant; which shews us solves on the Salvation of dying Infants, as an Act of his or through the Merits of the Lord Jesus Christ only, without on their Part done or to be done. Wherefore since in a geous Action the infinitely merciful and wise God, calla and Love and a little Infant cannot answer that Call, we clude that Infants are not concern'd in any religeous Ce all, consequently not in Baptism.

ever so many, yet surely we should all agree with the shapostles in this Doctrine, that the Heart must be given every Act of Religion; for that the giving the Body Heart, nay the giving all we can possibly give without figurate nothing. Wherefore in regard a little Insant give the Body nor the Heart, nor can any Action done so give any thing but the Body; All that hath been said said, must terminate in this Conclusion, that Insants are iefts of Chriftian Baptifm.

Thus have I argued against Infant's Right to Baptime gurnerits, all taken from their want of Power to perform it justly requir'd of Persons to be baptized; and I might gurnerits of that kind much beyond seven times seven that these are sufficient: Since it is granted by all, that by reason of their tender Age are unable to perform there are Sureties provided for them, who become their ingaging for them that when they come to Age and it granted for them and in their name, when they were by made for them and in their name, when they were by The Kirk of Scotland is so easie in this matter of

The Kirk of Scotland is so easie in this matter of ought I know) makes so light of it, that they are come only shall stand Sureries for their Children, and so no further Ingagements.

The Kirks of Rome and England &c. probably not the fufficient Security for the Performance of To great a order, that other Perfore beside the Parents, shall be

hou

Aai

ienc e is

be h

ends

ply w

and

vatio

nigref

to g fuch

ly Scri

Ws us

his or

withou

e in e

, calls

], we !

ous Ce

nong 0

the P

be given

Body

withou

Infant

done

been faid ants are

Baptilm

perform

Imight

, fhall be

th them : And thefe are called by a Name to which Mofes Prophets and all the Apostles were intire Strangers, viz. Godand Godmothers. Some there are who call them Od-Fa-Od-Mothers, it may be fearing that joining the Letter G. g them under the breach of the third Commandment, But matter asit is, I think they are odd fort of things, of which I ad any thing in Holy Scripture. Some there be who call a Name much more agreeable to their Nature, and that is hers, and Pope-Mothers, not that they would suppose them there and Mothers of the Pope, because they know, that ve neither Fathers nor Mothers; but they fo call them as they are such, as the Pope has constituted Fathers and Mohole who were never begotten by them, either naturally or y; and so its conceiv'd this new name will more plainly Original, than doth the name by which they are called. made a Question, whether there were any such things old as Godrathers and Godmothers, until the time that came into the World? it's very probable the Antwer in uld be, that there were not: Agreeable to Mr. Delaune in the Non-conformist p. 41. where he observes from the History, that Godfathers and Godmothers were the Invene fifth Century; for that nothing is read thereof in the As for my part I see not the least room to doubt, but this was defign'd to supercede the primitive Custom of baptiztecumens, which was when they were well instructed ina Profession of the Christian Faith, which Custom was the primitive Churches for four hundred Years, as own'd the learned and most notes Pedobaptifts. Mr. Delaune in the non-conformifts furnishes us with the names of fem, as Ludovicu, Vives Hugo Grotius, Daille a learned Frenchfeild, Walasridus, Strabo, Moribus and others; who shew m was deferr'd in ancient times, until a Profession of made by the Catecumens, when advanc'd to a confiderand they add that this is evident from the History of Condosius, Valentinian, and Gratian, and that it also appears brofe, the Orations of Gregory Naffanzen, and the writings nes leven Tertullian, Justin Martyr and others. all, that necessary the Pedobaptifts should observe, that in the fifth perform en the Apostacy had made it self very strong, and had ome their Root in the World, and was thereby become too firong Age and h Church of Christ, supported by great Numbers and ce good t is; they call'd Councels and establish'd their Inventiwere by ovations by Ecclefiaffical Cannons; then it was, that matter of things they found out and fet up Infant's Baptism. are conte they knew that the preceeding Ages did not baptize, , and for rofession of Faith, and that Infants were not able to great a G ofession; they therefore devis'd this pritty Invention s or Godfathers and Godmothers.

D

IE

If Credit may be given to Men of none of the fmalleft N fifth and following Centuries, produc'd excellent Head-pe full of rare Inventions in Religion, of which this of Fide-jull the least remarkable. I own I am not a little surpriz'd to that Men of Sense who pretend understanding in the Holy should give the least Countenance to it; specially when fider'd, what a vast Stock of Ignorance accompanies it, and in it almost necessarily leads the common and unthinking many of whom are observ'd to fay (and among these some and Figure) that a Name is given to a Child, as if it was a D it gets a Chriftning with it; and they are also ready tole that a Name is nor rightly given unless the God-Father go freely pass the severest Reflections upon, and ridicule the A and Quakers for giving their Children Names like Dogs. doubt these poor ignorant Souls would be very angry with we tell them, that just in such manner those got their Na were first called God-Fathers and God-Mothers, that is to called like Dogs without a Christning. We may fif our felves that the first of that kind had no God-Fathen Mothers to give them their Name, and it is also at least he bable that they were called fo without a Christning. Con the Name is not a Christian Name, and if not a Christian must be Antichristian and belongs to a Family to whole! Protestants should not have the strongest Affections.

But we conceive this is a matter in which we are very cern'd, and that we may content our felves to lie open to reasonable Reflections, which flow from the lamentable of the Times we live in ; whilft well affur'd from the Heaven, that a Father has a right to give his Child what pleases, without any such Ceremony in Religion, and we if any Man thinks otherwise, he is a Stranger to those he

As for Fide juffors (i. e.) Sureties, or Bonds men, or alias God-fathers and God-mothers, it is enough for us to they were born out of due time above four hundred Christ, that they are not to be met with in the holy Scri therefore against the 39 Articles of the Church of Engla larly against the fixth Article; and fince these Article lish'd by Law, it should seem to me as if so far these are contrary to the Law of England, as every thing ell (which according to that Article) is not warranted by Sa

What have we to do with the Inventions of the fit when the Beaft began to rife, and the World began to him; when Daniel's Little Hirn began to wax great, to the Stars, and cast the Touth of God to the Ground Sin lifting himself up in Pursuit of that Power, by wh fince been a Plague to the Church of God, as well as been a Plague to all Christendom, See D.in. 8. 10 to 14 first 12 Veries. . ev.13 and 14 Chapters.

n just n Con their mer is pr

1

F

0

of

anze

for

r bo

gan

mal

by ustin. did

Age

lerve

utho

and

the F

of I

econt

It the

ument

nga S a Bla pfants N

d-pe

d to

oly S

en i nd in

king

fome

sa D

tola

er giv

the A

Dogs.

with

ir Nar

at is t

athers

leaft h

christia whole I

re very

open to entable

om the

ild what and we thuse he

nen, or G

for us to nundred

holy Scri

of Englan

fe Article r thefe

thing elf

rted by Scr of the fift egan to great, to

Ground;

er, by wh

well as 10 to 14

is.

Jam a great Favourer of the Account which the late Bp. and Connor Dr. Feremy Taylor gives us of these useles, out ray things called God-fathers and God-mothers, in his Limobely p. 222. 223. and tho' the Bishop speaks in the Pernother, it's eafie to collect that he speaks his own Sense. his Words are, now God might if he would have appointed God-fathers od-mothers to give Answer in Behalf of Children, and e juffors for them; but we cannot find any Authority or dthat he hath; and if he had, then it is to be supposed uld have given them a Commission to have transacted emnity with better Circumstances, and to have given Anith more Truth : For the Question is ask'd of believing present, and if God fathers answer in the Name of the [I do believe] it is notorious they speak false and ridicu-For the Infant is not capable of believing, and if he were, also capable of diffenting, and how then do they know d: And therefore Tertulian gives this Advice, that the of Infants should be deferr d, 'till they could give an of their Faith, and the same also is the Account of Greanzen, altho' he allows them to hasten it in case of Nefor tho' his Reason taught him what was fit, yet he aborn by the Opinion and Practice of his Age, which gan to bear too violently upon him; and yet in another makes mention of some, to whom Baptism was not adby reason of Infancy, to which we add, that the Parents uftin, St. Hierom and St. Ambrofe, altho' they were Chrifdid not baptize their Children before they were Thirty lerve from this learned Bishop, that we cannot conclude uthority of the Word of God, that he ever appointed and God-mothers; which is certainly true, for there is the Holy Scriptures to Support them, nor is there the of Reason to countenance the Continuation of them, econtrary, that Reason enlightned by Scripture is alto-If them, as may in some measure appear from the foluments.

Argument the First.

n justly be accounted Christians, until they are such n Confent, then all that can be promifed by Sureties their Baptism is infignificant. mer is true -Therefore the latter.

Argument the Second.

nga Seal to a Covenant not consented to be the puta Blank, nav to a Curfe, then all Promifes made by fants are infignificant : But the first is true, - There-

Argument the Third.

If no Covenant made, fignifies any thing to any but his consents to it, then all Promises which are made by Sureties fants at their Baptism, fignifie nothing;

But the former is true, - Therefore the latter:

Argument the Fourth.

If Sureties for the Performance of a Baptismal Covenant invented until the fifth Century, then the setting up fathers and God mothers is unwarrantable;

But the first is true, - Therefore the latter.

Argument the Fifth.

If no Person can put himself in the Place of, and become for an Infant at his Baptism, without speaking faisly an lously, then the Being of God-fathers and God mothers is rantable; But the former is true,—Therefore the lant Argument the Sixth.

If nothing should be received in Religion as an Aricle are as any way necessary to Salvation which is not read in nor can be proved by it; then the countenancing of Go and God mothers, as Sureties for little Infants is unwarmant.

But the first is true,-Therefore the laft.

These few Arguments are grounded upon Mr. Henry in municants Companion; upon Dr. Jeremiah Taylor, Bishop of Connor, the Mazdeburgh History, and the Sixth of the 39 dris Church of England, in such particulars as wherein I am sound Doctrine is contain'd, and here I could multiply At gainst the warrantableness of Sureties for the Performance Covenant, made for Infants at their Baptism; a Covenant, had not the Power to keep, and to which they at their Consent; and such a Covenant, as the Sureties keep not, no not the very best of them, and those who at of them (as Men of Conscience) will sadly acknowledge them.

However, fince these Sureties are so warmly content Men of great Learning and by so considerable a Part of tian World, may it not be necessary for us to inquire in lowing Particulars.

First, Who these Sureties are bound to? Whether they

Secondly, What are they bound to do, or bound he by those Infants, whose Sureties they are, when they con

Co Co fr

who aki

an

ord him fuct

nty

le, n he D his A hat hofe

Bond bour the B f they a mer

h as t Sureting perf

not fu ot a n mey really and indeed bind themselves, that they shall the Devil and all his Works, with the Pomps and Vanities cked world, together with all the finful Lufts of the Fleth, they shall keep God's Holy Commandments, and walk neunto the end of their Lives?

are those Securities which are raken for the Performance ptismal Covenant folvent or infolvent? I mean are they ve the Lord Jelus Chrift Satisfaction for the non perforthis Covenant by those Infants when they come to Age? y, if Papilts become Sureries for the Infants of Protestants. tants for the Infants of Papifts, that they shall be brought Fath into which they are faid to be baptized, whether ies do not covenant and bind themselves contrary to Consciences? And whether those Ministers, be they Paprestants who accept those Sureties, be not unfaithful to Consciences if they have any Conscience at all; for this frequently done?

what fort of Sureties are those, whither Papills or Proto are very wicked both as to Swearing, Curfing, Drunk. the Performance of this Baptismal Covenant? Must here, that the accepting such Security, is an abominable upon the Son of God, in that he must be put off with and that any manner of Security must be made m? - Most affonishing! that these who call themord's Ministers, should accept of, and hold such prowho are Enemies to Christ by their wicked works. him for the Performance of a Covenant to folemn in such Men as whose words they themselves would not nty Shillings. Must the great Lord of Lords be put e, notwithstanding they are so apparently Bond-Saves he Devil? Surely the time will come, when God will his Adversaries, and avenge him of his Enemies.

that is the Penalty of those Bonds? What must be dehose Securities, in case these Infants for whom they are or perform when they come to Age? We know that Bonds pass'd to one another bear some Penalty: For bound, we must but pay.

he Bonds perfected by these Bondsmen, are of a very f they have no Penalty at all; for as fuch they are a mere matter of Form, a Trifle and manifest Banter rift. But furely the Pedobaptifts will not fay, that the has these, which they pass to the Lord Jesus, when Sureties or Bondimen for little Infants, that they shall perform the Three-fold Vows made for them at not fuch Bonds as these, but Bonds which bear some or a matter of the greatest Moment and Consequence low what the Penalty is? for how do they know, but

ovenan

g up

ut his

reties

ecome i illy an

thers is he latte

Aricle read in g of Go

an warran

Henry I ifhop of ne 39 Arti in 1 am leiply An Perform a Coven ch they

Sureties ! le who an acknowl eir Breach y conten le a Partol inquire in ether they God? bound fi a they con or

M

Ha

tur

e f

rp

od.

efus

you lick

d fif

s of

Lou

and

y, 1

the

een

ions

itisf.

or th

eciall

hund

her,

aptif

-mot

inhap

e Arr

you

it ung

erit e

endan

thall

it is a Bond and Judgment, a Bond with a Warrant of Attake out Execution against Body and Soul? How do the but the Judgment enter'd up in the Court of Heaven doth that in case the Infant when he comes to Age, doth nor the Covenant made for him in Baptism, that then the Sun be damn'd for fuch non-performance.

Were the Pedobaptifts sure of this, that the Judgmente upon the Bond did run thus, it might probably startle them Thoughts as might make the Gossiping Cup too bitter a Sugar in Christendom to sweeten it; and for ought our se know their Bonds may run thus in Heaven in what Form soever they may stand here upon Earth. Oh that Mental and that they would wisely consider, that he who hates a Suretiship is sure! Specially such a kind of Suretiships danger the loss of Heaven.

Mon and Women, in suffering themselves to be decoy'd Custom into an Action which may make way for sad, the too late Repentance? A matter which may be of the great in the World, and of the last Consequence to them in make no more than a Play of it, whilst taking their Rou Gossiping Cup, and making themselves as drunk as Be the Head of a new made Christian: A compleat Christian ade so without its own Consent! a Christian which know the consent!

The Apostle Paul in reasoning upon Righteousness, I and Judgment to come, made Felix tremble, and almost King Agrippa to be a Christian; but after all he was be Christian: As for these little innocent harmless Babes far from being almost Christians, that they know not matter, and are utter Strangers to all the Follies, their too justly chargeable with.

of Christianity.

But to return, to inquire what the Penalty of those perfected by those Fide-justors or Sureties for little Infanthe Infants for whom they are bound, when they come to prove wicked as they generally do; for they never worse after Baptism, since better they cannot possibly to the innocency and harmless of their Nature; and should continue wicked to the end of their Lives, as them do, thousands of them so wicked as to bring them Gallows by their Wickedness, what must be dema Bondsmen for this breach of Covenant? Surely it is his ble that the Lord Jesus Christ should have some State in non-performance.

If any Man be bound to another, if he be held in earthly King, and the Condian be not perform'd, the neral, the Sollicitor General and all our Judges will nion, that Satisfaction must be made to the King's M Sureties, they must answer for the non-performance of relies they were ; and shall no Satisfaction be given to the Kings, by Fide-juffors for the non-performance of a baptifnant made for little Infants ar their Baprifm? Are all Sure-Particular infolvent ? not one of them able to give Satis-Oh hard case! the Son of God is finely hop'd up with not every Man of Understanding say, it were as well ald be no Securities at all, as to have fuch who are not ake any Satisfaction for non-performance. he Roman Catholicks, there is fomething to be faid for them Jother Rome has made kind Provision for them, so that by Roman Antichristian Law, they may be brought off feveby Works of Supererogation, by their holy Penances, t dear place call'd Purgatory; a place whose Scituation is ons of Miles beyond the North Pole, nay many thousand Miles beyond the whole Creation of God: A place at fo fance from us, that a Voyage to the World in the Moon ol to it.

turn, to shew how the Roman Catholicks can discharge all : Since it is possible for them to be more righteous than e for their own Salvation, its only transferring or confignrplus of their Righteousness to the Account of their od-Children, in full Satisfaction for all their Bonds to elus.

you think Courteous Reader? Suppose a good honest lick should say fifty Thousand Pater Nofters, and one afifty Thousand Ave Marias, every Day of his Life, and four times every Year, one hundred and fifty Thous of times bare-foot and bare-leg'd and upon his bare Lough dereg; think ye not that he must be a graceless and much more ignorant than the Pope himself, who y, that this is sufficient? Yea and so much more than the Opinion of all Protestants especially) that the Vireen of Heaven would deserve to be expell'd her Ceions for ever, if the did not compel her Son to accept itisfaction for themselves, and in full Discharge of all or those Infants for whom they became Sureties; but evially if to this they shall add, a Continuance in Pur-hundred Thousand Millions of Years; then surely all her, must be a plenary Satisfaction to the Lord Jesus, aptismal Ingagements, altho' they had stood Godfamothers for one half of the whole World.

mhappy Ped baptifts of the Protestant Fraternity, of all at what in the World will become of you? how is it Art of Man to fecure you? you that cannot be more you ought to be; you that after having done all you unprofitable Servants, in whole best Performances erit enough for your own Salvation, but must needs endance on the Merit of another ! you that being eshall at last but scarcely be faved, and that by Grace

o the doth h not e Sun nente them itter f our Fi

of Ar

Form Men hates a tifhipa

y and l lecoy'd fad, th he great nem, an eir Rou k as Be c Christi aich kno Inels, I nd almos e was b Babes know not ies, their of those ittle Infan ey come to y never possibly b ure; and ives, as l oring them be dema ely it is hi e. some Sa

be held in rm'd, the idges will King's M ormanceof

be

ny'

of

onfi

us l ec-

7 C

ney

l be ls a

he is

; ye

bad

nils

rieft

ure o

for th

y pla

ntum

t; fo

ere e whice

over h wil

ptilm,

man

Antio

n Infa Gion

A S rcy a

enly; you that never cut your Knees on the Rocks of Loude can hope for ease in an eastless Purgatory; are you bound; sistaction do you propose to give the King of Kings, for edness of those Infants, for whose Performance you have your selves

When Judah became Surery to his Father Jacob for the los Benjamin from Egypt, we read what the Penalty of the Bif I bring him not back, let me bear the Blame for even and Ruben also joining himself with Judah in the same Bon maley thereof was the Death of his two Sons, Gen. 42, If I not back, flay my two Sons.

Oh thou Pedobattift ! who art finared by the words of the in becoming Surety for the Performance of a Covenant the Name of an Infant at his Baptilm, in cale he performs must be done to thee? must thou bear the blame FOR! must the Sons be flain for fuch non-performance? or me DAM N'D thy felf for them? go to now I pray thee, the Advice, humble thy felf before God unto whom thou thy felf; alk his Pardon in the Name of the Lord Jela thou half done already ; and folemnly refolve thou will 2 Fide juffor more; thus deliver thy felf as a Bird from of the Fowler, and as a Roe from the Hand of the Hunn r to 7. From what has been faid, I hope it will appear Man truly thoughtful, that the giving and taking Godf God-mothers as Spreties for the Performance of a Cover for Infants in Baptilm, is unwarrantable. And now after fer our felves to inquire, where lies the Benefit of all t Infants, and from their being baptized upon fuch Se a fair Examination it will be manifest that they have no it at all, and that Baptifm is intirely ufelels to them: Salvation of the Soul is happily fecur'd without it, and Spiritual Benefit or ecclefiastical Privilege arising from felt they have none, more than they would have had both which I shall endeavour to make good by the follo ments, which I conceive have no small weight against to Baptilm, as taken from the ufeleffnels thereof to the Argument the Eighth.

If it be unreasonable to administer Water Baptisms until such Person can have some spiritual or saving such Administration, then it is unreasonable to administration to a little Infant:

But it is unreasonable to administer Water Baptism until such Person can have some spiritual or saving Ben Administration; - Therefore &c.

In Defence of the Consequence of the Major, I for If little Infants neither do nor can receive any fpiniual the Administration of Water Baptism to them, then the nee of the Major is true:

the Infants neither do nor can receive any spiritual or say, it from the administration of Baptism to them; e good the Minar Proposition of this Argument, I further

r Baptism administer'd to little Infants doth not put them ter Condition than they were in without it, then little ve no Benefit from the administration of it to them; ter Baptism administred to little Infants, doth not put a better Condition than they were in without it; be reasonably suppos'd, that any part of this Argument ny'd, but the Minor; and I cannot fee, that with any palon or Justice it can be deny'd by Protestants; because of it (fo far as it relates to the Salvation of the Infant) onlistent with their Confessions and Protestations against us Doctrines of Rome, which teach that Baptismis so ecessary, that little Infants dying without it, cannot be cannot be admitted into the Kingdom of Heaven. be damn'd, or that they shall go to Purgatory, for tho is and ill-natured to Infants dying without this Sacrehe is resolv'd they shall neither go to Heaven, nor to ; yet the is to compassionate to those innocent Babes, bad Fortune to die before they are born, or lo quickly mils the Opportunity of having a little Water by the riest sprinkled upon them, I say such is the tenderness ure of Rome to those Babes, that she has provided a for them (and no doubt has furnish'd it with abuny play things). which she calls Limbo Infantum. Where ntum is, I confess I know not; the' I know right well t; for I know it is not in any part of the Creation of the elfe it can be, the Lord of Onford knows not; it's pay be within a million of Miles of that place call'd which for ought I know may be within a Door or toy.

ever all this Roman Catholick Stuff, I say that that he will not admit little Infants into Heaven, because tilm, is a Doctrine which proceeds from the very man Ignorance; a Doctrine most justly to be con-Antichristian Heresy. Astonishing Ignorance! to a Infant should be deny'd eternal Happiness, because this that agither the Power to perform, nor to A Supposition of this kind strips the Divine Being try and Justice at once.

2

If

for that the B even Bon

If It

rforms ORI or mu

thou to define the definition of the definition g God-fi a Coven now after of all the fuch Second have no of ir, and ing from it ave had the followagainst in hth.

eof to the

Baptilm to or faving e to admi

Baptilm!

ajor, I for

to

XC

d re

litt

Su

in Hea

Ip

litel

recto

do no

lage

no a

(an en, to elayi

for Out u

ve in ctio

t the

fion,

If Infant's Baptism was expresly commanded by Gods tainly is not) the not administring it to an Infant could o Crime in the Parents, or fuch other whose Bufiness it was but no Crime inthe Infant, for its want of Power to obey mand would plead its Excuse both to human and Divine And if any Man thinks otherwise, I must believe that he h indifferent Notion of Justice: And that he would (hadh be a cruel Task Master, in requiring an impossible Obedien that his Head is too full of wild Conceptions of a God infini just and good, in supposing he has made a Law, to which Obedience, from such Persons who cannot possibly und Where a Man can and will not understand; his Ignorand no Cloak tor him: For wilful Ignorance is most justly por Crimes of the first Rank, tho' we admit, that invincible (as is that of Infants and Idiots) discharges from all 0 to Obedience. As Mr. John Abernathy doth well observe cellent Discourse intituled Religious Obedience founded on person fon, and particularly in his 22d. page. Now if this be to Persons, how much more should it be admitted so in in fants. Very cruel then must be the Opinion of those millions of the most innocent part of the human Racea or that a harmless Infant can have no Entrance into the of Heaven, unless it's involuntary Reception of the & Baptism shall procure it's Admittance. Amazing Conce tional Creatures! what shall it be thought that afe Water from the Hands of a Priest shall have so mu it, as to force open the Gates of Glory, and quench Flames of divine Wrath!

The Church of Scotland in her National Covenant, of of Faith which was subscrib'd by the King, Noblem Gentlemen, Burgeffes Ministers and Commons, do pr this severe Doctrine in these words viz. " We do abho the Roman Antichrists cruel Judgment against Infar " without the Sacrament; as also his absolute Necessis Again in their Directory to the administration of they order the Minister to tell the People" that out is not so necessary, as that through the want of it, in Danger, or the Parents guilty, if they do not to " gleft the Ordinance of Christ, They add, that a necessary to be delay'd, so it is not to be administer " by any private Person, but by a Minister of Christ the 28th Arricle of the Westminster Confession. Hence Church of Scotland's Opinion is, that Baptism is not be delay'd, and that the Delay of it will not indanger To contains an Answer to that common Question, table Ignorance is the Mother of, viz. What will be Infants, who die without Baptism? The Kirk's And fafe: And the Reason is obvious, because it was non

that they were not baptized, tho' it were suppo manded.

of

God (

ould or

it was

obey t

Divine

at he h

(had he

Obedie

od infini

whichh

oly unde

gnorano

justly p om all 0

observe d on perfe

is be tru

d so in in n Race a

into the

f the Sa ng Concer

that afe

quench

venant, o

Noble-n

ns, do pre do abho

inft Infan

e Necessit

ration of that out

ant of it,

do not co ld, that a

of Christ

indanger

neftion,

hat will be Kirk's Ans

it was non fm is not

are some Infants, whose Mother's Wombs by the Dispodivine Providence are made their Graves: There be others ho tho' they are born alive, yet go out of the World the nnet they come in: Now if the Question be put, what will of these Infants? whosever shall give Answer to this Quesqueeable to what we have from the Church of Scotland as and shall say with the Roman Doctors in a repugnancy to the intures, that Water Baptism takes away original Sin, and hose who die unbaptiz'd are under the guilt of it and canvid, or that after Death they can have no better place for mal Residence than Limbo Infantum: I must take leave of such a Man, that his understanding is marvelously being that his Dwelling is in the dark Shades of Antichristian, and that tho' he should be ever so great a Man or Schowho understands the Hornbook of Christianity, is able him.

here if need requir'd run into many Arguments to prove Infants are faved by Grace, through the Merits of our without Water Baptism, and that it will not contribute to their Salvation; but there appears not to me any occahaving enough to support the present Argument without suffice me to refer such who have a defire to think upon ft, to a Sermon preach'd by Mr. Samuel Acton of Namptxcellent Discourse intituled Dying Infants saved by Grace: I refer them to Mr. Thomas Grantham's Infants Advocate. rinciple Defign in what I have immediately offer'd is to little Infants have no faving Benefi: from the administrati-Im to them; but that they are (in reference to the Salva-Soul) in as good a Condition without it, as they possibly in by it: And I am willing to hope what I have spoken Head, will be deem'd sufficient for that Purpose. I passany further, I shall beg my Readers Excuse for little on the above mentioned Passage in the Church of reflory, viz. Outward Baptism is not so necessary, as that want of it the Infant is in Danger or the Parents guilto not contemn or neglect the Ordinance of Christ. age ministers an occasion to me to affure all Mankind, no are called Anabaptifts have the Evidence of our own (and hope that our Protestation will obtain Credit with en, to whose Consciences we destre to approve our selves) elaying Baptism to our Children, until they covenant for themselves, doth not in the least arise from any out upon the Ordinance of Christ, which we have and we in the highest Estimation; and I am persuaded it be supposed of us, that as Parents we are without ection to our Children, or are destitute of that Paternal them, which ordinarily fills the Breasts of the most son, that they may Religiously remember their CreaCreator in the Days of their Youth, and covenant with Chaines; and as their Reason ripens, so as that they are can Instruction, we admonish them to forward the work of Conspecially, and cleave to God with full purpose of Soul, specially careful, that they contemn not the Ordinances of in contenting themselves to remain Strang rs and Forreign that they should rather strive to get within the Walls of become Fellow-Citizens of the Saints and of the Houshold that their Baptism be not deferred one day beyond the which they may conveniently have it, as a thing of their of ing, and to which a warm Affection to Christ and a deverlasting Salvation shall move them, that their religious ence may be founded in and flow from their Personal se and so be acceptable to God through our Lord Jesus Ch

I deny not, that some of our Children when they com act contrary to that Advice we give them as Paren contrary to those Instructions our Pulpits frequently affor who put off the great Work of Conversion, and fally the weighty Concernment of the Soul, and all the Ordin Heaven; and thereby make the Hearts of their Parent forrowful; yet this must be accounted their own Guilt the Guilt of their Parents : And after all in this Paris are but upon an unhappy Level with the rest of our fello tians, even of the Pedobaptists whose Children's Disobedien an Occasion of grief to them, as ours do to us. So feeing Baptism too early administer'd has been in vain upon second and more solid thoughts they may probably fon to wish it had been deferr'd until Conversion had proceeded it, and so brought it in its proper time and furely where Persons baptized do not walk answerable Obligations their Baptism lays them under (according postles way of Reasoning Rom. 2. 25.) their Bapilla accounted as no Baptism.

Solomon teaches, that everything is beautiful in its of the Apostles Doctrine is, that all things in Religion should decently and in Order, which plainly intimates that it certain Order to be observed in that Obedience which God: That it must be a regular Obedience so that it Submission should keep its proper Time and Place as divine Appointment: That a Man should not begin at End of his Dury, to put that first which should be list which should be first, so making Obedience a he sufficient to be must have Respect to all the righteous God in a proper and regular order of Succession, of Command first, which is first to be obey'd, and so rest of God's Commandments.

It is observable (as before hinted) that by the Lavenone shall be admitted to the Holy Communion of Supper, until they are Confirmed, or are defirous of Communion of Communio ior h of

ha

ur

W

e I

rds

d Cond ind individual what is the sain Sain toge their ds a bour

that or we ighe of be com me a tion

ls fo titis at w ersion

aying on of the Bishop's Hands; whence it is evident that of the Church of England is, that the Obedience which to divine Precepts must be regular and appear in what they be good Order, every Act in Religion keeping its proper d Place; for it would certainly be much out of Order n to receive the Lord's Supper first, and be confirm'd af be confirm'd first and be baptized after, because that to invert the appointed Order of our Obedience, which plainly revealed in the Doctrine and Practice of the holy who constantly teach, that that Command which first takes on us, and whe must have the first Place in our Obedihat Command which calls for and wills our Convertion: evident that unconverted Souls have no right to tread urts or meddle with facred things, and if they prefume what ever they do even their very Prayers will be an ion to God. The very first thing that a Man must do, him and make him clean, and put away from before of a holy and pure God, the evil of his doings, as Isaiab in his first Chapter.

e Baptist and our blessed Redeemer, as also the Apostles, ing upon their Ministry, the first thing they called for as Obedience, was Repentance from dead works, or a in; for they knew that Wildom is founded in the fear e holy Spirit constantly teaching that the fear of God nning of Wildom, or the very first Step which Wildom ids everlasting Glory. Now after Repentance is laid. Succession of Obedience comes the Profession of Faith Christ, next in the Beauty of Holiness comes Water nd then follows Confirmation or laying on of Hands: that we may call the introducing Ceremonies of Chrisch usher Men into the visible Church and external Com Saints, incorporating them into Chrift's Body; where together and ty'd with Bonds of Christian Love, must heir Advances in Religion, passing from a State of Inds a State of Spiritual Manhood or Maturity; growing bounding in Knowledge and in every good Word and that both towards God and Man; labouring to appreor which they are apprehended of Christ; pressing toighest State of Perfection Man's Nature is capable of, If be done in a regular Observation of all things which commanded, and performing every particular Duty in me and Place, excited thereto from an Expectation of tion of the Dead and eternal Judgment.

affirm is that beautiful Order in which the King is for our Obedience, Heb. 6. 1. 2. and we must betit is our Dury to contend earnestly for it; as being at where this Order is inverted, as by putting Baptism ersion, or by being baptized first and repenting and bewhereas God calls for Repentance and Faith first and foo y the Law nunion of Grous of Co

CH

cap f Co

Soul,

ces u

reign

's of

hold

the

their

a de

ligiou nal Pe

efus Ch

ey com

s Paren

ly affor d fadly

e Ordin

Parents

vn Guilt

is Partio

our fello

Tobedien

is. So

in vain probably rfion had

me and

nswerable

ccording r Baptila

1 in its &

igion show tes that t

ce which

fo that er

Place an

t begin at uld be li

ence a he righteous ceffion, ob

and Baptism after, or where any other Duty in Religion out of the proper Place which it ought to have in a reg cession of Duties, it is a putting Contempt (I will not fay ly) upon the Ordinance of Christ; and I hope I can truly therefore do we contend for this Order, because we we that any of Christ's Ordinances should be contemned, know ought not to be; believing with the Church of & it is a very great evil and may be attended with dangerou quences, in regard the Lord Jesus Christ is a great King, juftly commands all Mankind to be subject to his Laws, wi The Truth of addition to them or diminution from them. may be feen in the following Texts of Scripture, Math. 1. Mark 1. 4. and v. 15. Luke 3. 1 to 14. verfes. Mark 16. 15. 28. 19. 20. Luke 24. 47. Afts 2. 37 to 42. Heb. 6. 1. 2. R to the end. Prov. 30. 5. 6. Deut 4. 2.

Now to proceed. As the Business of the foregoing was to shew, that Infants have no saving Benefit from the tration of Baptism, it being evident that the Salvation Souls is secured without it; the Defign of the following. is to shew, that neither have they any Spiritual Benefit Administration, in that it doth not give them a right to tual Privilege in the vifible Christian Church, which wast thing I propos'd to prove; therefore in Defence of this !

I further Argue.

Argument the Ninth.

0

Fo dh

ld

, b Ho

th

oat

ptil

ch, t

Ch

Chur

nuni

fible. o' fhe

ing o

true

kno

ime a ke Pr

are

f Eng

burch

ertain

andm

onfirn tted

ding

thefe

on an

Water Baptism is an initiating Ordinance into the vi tian Church: But it neither doth nor can initiate lin into it.

Therefore Infants are not the Subjects of Water Bap The Major Proposition is allowed true by all Parties, fore I have only to defend the Minor, which will be following Argument.

That Ceremony in Religion which doth initiate Per visible Christian Church is such, as gives them a Right munion of that Church:

But Water Baptism doth not give little Infants a

Communion of the visible Christian Church. Therefore Water Baptism neither doth nor can initi fants into the vifible Christian Church, as was to be p if it be an initiating Ordinance to all unto whom it is nifter'd, then it will follow by the clearest Demonstrati fants are not the Subjects of it.

It is plain from Atts 2. 41. 42. and indeed from History of the new Testament, that those who were to the visible Christian Church by Baptism, had al Communion of that Church, and accordingly they we fhip one with another, in the Apostle's Doctrine, and

Bread and in Prayer,

burch of England's Definition of the vifible Christian Church ly right, viz. That it is a Congregation of faithful Men nen, among whom the Doctrines of the Gospel are faithached, and the Ordinances thereof duly and rightly ad-See the 19th of the 39 Articles.

Congregation as thus defin'd is made up of such Memre capable of having Communion and Fellowship one ther, both in Gospel Doctrines, Gospel Ordinances and Prayers, and in the whole of that Spiritual Worship od requires of his People; and it is most demonstrably hat little Infants can be no part of a Church fo defin'd, obably the Church of Scotland was aware of, and therea different Definition of the universal visible Church, ifible Christian Church confists of all those throughout World, who profess the true Religion TOGETHER THEIR CHILDREN. See the Affemblies Confession, Reason the Kirk of Scotland had, for varying thus from of England I ken nos, for I own I fee no Reason for the of these Words. TOGETHER WITH THEIR CHIL-For it is my Opinion the Article would have done much had been much more agreeable to Truth without them: ld then have not only been more agreeable to the Church but also to the Scriptural Notion of a visible Gospel However after all it will do the Scotch Pedobaptifts no Serthe Point of Pedobaptism: Since it is evident that those pare faid to be initiated into the visible Church of Scotptilm, are no more initiated into the Communion of th, than those Infants who are said to be initiated into Church of England, who it may be are more forward Church of Scotland, to admit unqualifi'd Members into nunion; of which and the evil of which I wish she was fible. Yet I do not hereby excuse the Church of Scothe were not guilty of an Error (and which is a great ing over forward to receive Members into her Commutrue Conversion gives them a Right to that Privilege. known to all that Infants as Infants, yea and for a conme after they pals the State of Infancy, until they are ke Promises for themselves, and a personal Profession of are not admitted to the Communion of either of the f England or Scotland.

burch of England they must be able to answer the Quesertain Catechise, in relation to the Apostle's Creed, the andments, and some other Articles of Faith, to qualify onfirmation, without which Confirmation they are not tted to the holy Communion, the Law of England exding it (how little soever in Practice that Law is re-these Words." And none shall be admitted to the holy on until such time as he is Confirm'd or ready and

Religion a regulation n truly we wo nned, of Su

angerou

of

King, WS: Wit ruth of Math. 3. 16. 15.6 [. 2. Re egoing ! rom the Salvation llowing! Benefit right to ch was t of this P

1. o the vi itiate lit ater Bapi Parties, tiate Per a Rightt

will be

fants a can initi s to be p om it is f emonstrati deed from who were had a l trine, and

A

an

B

var

und

e v

Thou

y no

ptu

ts B

th, o g sh Th

Prop

, the

ine o

be p trine

be pro ne of

prove ether

ich it

not an

Quefti

desirous to be Consirmed. All which consider'd, it is evid little Infants by Baptism are not initiated into the visible or permitted to have any Spiritual Privilege in it, as not any right to the Communion of it: Consequently they Benefit from Baptism at all, for tho' it be in its own Not initiating Ordinance, and is so design'd by the Lord Jesus neither is nor can be so to little Infants since it gives them to no Privilege, to which they would not have a Right with

If it be faid, they have a Right to go to Church wi without it.

If it be said they have a Right as they grow upin hear the Word preached, and have also a Right to the state Church; to this it may be answer'd, they would have to those Things, if they were not baptized.

If it be said that when they come to Years of Discreto the Exercise of their Reason and do profess Faith in Compromise to renounce the Devil and all his Works, and to lie Godly Life, that then they have a Right to the Sacrams Supper, and the holy Communion of the Church.

To this I answer (with defire my Reader will deliber it, that he will think twice before he paffes Judgment, an cially careful that no prejudices possess his Judgment Ser a Seat from which Christ expects an honest and faithful I fay my Answer is that since the deferring of Bapti unnecessary, and that it doth not indanger the Damnat fants for that their Salvation is made lafe another way; they have no Right to the Communion of the Church come to Age and make Promises for themselves, and be tians with their own Consent; This is the only fit in them Christian Baptism, and to initiate them into Church, and to a Right to all the Privileges thereof ator ally confidering that they thereby keep their Children 'til they are well instructed in the Articles of the Chi and act in an agreeableness to the Practice of the primit who thus did for the Space of Four Hundred Years, a ferwed: Ludovicus Vives thus expresses himself, " Non " old baptized but those who were of Age, who did derstand what the Mistery of the Water meant, but fame. To which add the Words of Dr. Field "This " that were born of Christian Parents, besides those " converted from Paganism put off their Baptism for informuch that many were made Bishops before

I own I am not a little surprized, that Gentlemen of Sense and of sober Conversations will continue a Practice of warmly for it; which they themselves so plain lickly confess to be useless: A Practice without which it the Instant may be saved; and a Practice by which it either one way or other.

wed by learned Pedobaptists that antiently when Mended (contrary to the Practice of the Apostolical Church) esacrament of Baptism to Infants, they thought they uch bound to give them the Sacrament of the Supper cordingly they gave it them, and that for some hundred in the Latin and Greek Churches; upon which a certain it as his Opinion, that the one might be given as well it, for that in reality they had no Right to either; and Persuasion, that the practice of baptizing Infants came and Mistake of our Lord's Words to Nicodemus, John 3. not born of Water and the Spirit, cannot enter into the Kingdom and that the practice of communicating Infants, or given Supper, came in upon a like Mistake of his Words in John, Whosever eats not my Flesh and drinks not my Blood, they in them. See Dr. Barlow Bishop of Lincoln's Letter to All which duly consider'd, will bring us to the Truth and Question, (i. e.) that Infants are not the Subjects Baptism.

w proceed to argue against Infant's Right to Baptism warrantableness thereof by the Holy Scriptures and understanding Man will grant that if the Holy Scriptures to warrant it, it must then be accounted an unwarrant

August 1 77

Argument the Tenth.

hould be received as an Article of the Christian Faith y necessary to Man's Salvation, but what is read in ptures or may be proved from thence, then the Docus Baptism is not to be received as an Article of the th, or as any way necessary to Man's Salvation. I should be received as an Article of the Christian. Therefore &c.

Proposition is the 6th of the 39 Articles of the Church of the Consequence of the Major may thus be proved ine of Infant's Baptism be not read in the Holy Scripter proved thereby, then the Consequence of the Martin Proved the Pro trine of Infant's Baptism is neither read in holy Scrips be proved thereby: Therefore & s. of the Minor of this Argument, I further argue.

ne of Infant's Baptism be either read in holy Scripproved thereby, then some one or other of the Genether Side the Question, can point out that part of ich it is read, or by which it can be proved, not any one of those Gentlemen who stand on the Question, can point out any part of Holy Scripture

.

fible fible as not they

of

I Jelus them ht with

upin the fr

Discrete
h in Ch nd to lin Sacrame

deliber nent, an nent Sea faithful Bapti Damnat

Church and bed by fit tin m into the Chri e primiti Years, 28 f, "Non who did to leant, but ld "Tha ides those tism for a tops before

tlemen of inue a Praise so plain hout which it in which the Doftrine of Infants Baptifm is read, or by can be proved, - Therefore &c.

I know it has been alledg'd by the Gentlemen I opp tho' the Doctrine and Practice of baptizing Infants cannot by any express Scripture, yet it may be proved by Confedent which they say are justly deduced from the Scriptures; have taken abundance of Pains to find out those Conseque have consumed abundance of time which they might have a much better Improvement of, for I think I can without say, that the I am very far from being one of the stronger Anabaptists, yet weak as I am, I can undertake to shew the ness of all the Arguments which as yet hath appeared to Considence of which, I shall further argue.

Argument the Eleventh.

eal

p g fro

Pro

e to

or

ng i Con

sIc

how

ants

ence i Confi

us the

Infant

Right

is Arg

when :

er, yet

n back

Now i

e Infai keepir them

th Par

ole to

If the Practice of baptizing Infants cannot be proved wither by some Precept in Scripture expressly commanding some President in Scripture expressly shewing it to be the of holy Men mention'd therein, nor by any Consequence fairly deducible from the Holy Scriptures; then the baptizing infants is unwarrantable:

But the Practice of baptizing Infants cannot be protable, either by any Precept in the Holy Scripture extraording it, or by any Prefident expressly shewing it to tice of holy Men mentioned therein, nor by any Confequent fairly deducible from any thing therein premised:

Therefore the Practice of baptizing Infants is unwant was to be proved, and every Man is bound to admit it I conceive) unless he knows of some Paffage in hol which warrants the Practice either by Precept, Presiden Holy Scripture; but for the present I must believe Paffage is to be found in all the divine Writings: For be supposed, that were it possible to find any such Pasta or other of those Gentlemen who have hitherto wrote largely in Favour of Infants Baptism, would certainly us to it; but this they have not done, and it will app fingular in my Opinion as to this particular, when lo as Dr. Barlow Bishop of Lincoln, has professed himselfe pinion as in these Words" I have read what my 800 Baxter, Dr. Hamond and others have wrote upon the I must own that I am not a little surpriz'd, that Me Parts fhould fay fo much to fo little Purpofe for!

I am persuaded that all who are impartial will Barlow was a good Judge of an Argument, and that Mind candidly; for where a Man shall speak again admitted to be a probable Sign of his Sincerity. by

I opp

phot

Con

ires;

nleque

ght h withou

Aronge

hewi

eared t

h.

roved w

mandin

to be th

equence

en the

be prot

ture ext

ng it to

Conlege emised

is unwar

admit it

e in hol

Prefider

d in luck

believe

gs: For

uch Palla

rto wrote

certainly will app

when fo

himfelfo

at my goo

that Me

Baptilm

tial will

and that oak agan

incerity

they could in Favour of the Cause they espoused, and did as much as could be done by any other, but it is impossed of the clearest Heads and brightest Parts to support a and Practice, which the Holy Scriptures results to maintain. Herally granted, that the Scriptures do no where require it, hat the History of the Atts of the Apostles, gives no express fits being practiced by them, so that now nothing is prest Consequences, about which it is an easy thing for Men of the Considerable Parts to be mistaken.

dehief Justice Cook in matters of Law, specially in such wherein Man's Life is concern'd; is very much against ces, what his Lordship calls argumentative Verdicts; in reattended with such notorious uncertainties, and there a Possibility for Men to be mistaken in their Conceptions n, even when they are diligently seeking out the Truth, oguage of unintelligible Circumstances, attending certain as whereupon they have brought in innocent Persons eath for Crimes they were no way concen'd in, whereof p gives some Instances.

from divine History, that good old Jacob (notwithstand-Prophet) was mistaken in the Conclusion he came to to the Death of his Son Joseph, whose Coat was brought or torn, and bloody; he knew the Coat was Joseph's, ag it to be torn and bloody he draws this Conclusion Consequence from the Premises, Joseph is no doubt torn

s I conceive, be for the advantage of the Pedobaptifts how much more easy it is for them to be mistaken, in ants Right to Baptism, as a Consequence from somethey find premis'd in holy Scripture; for Instance they all they suppose they find that Infants were in Coveence they infer they have a Right to Baptilm; whereas Confideration might discover, how unnatural the Infeus they argue upon it. Those that have an Interest int, have a Right to the SEALS of the Covenant: Infants have an Interest in the Covenant; - Therefore light to the SEALS of it. Now let a due attention is Argument, and the corruption of the reasoning will when apply'd to their own Practice; for observe they ea Right to the SEALS of the Covenant, in the r, yet in Practice they give them but one, viz. Baptism, nback from the Supper, which they own to be the Now if it should be made a Question, which of the e Infant the most Injustice, the Baptist or Pedobaptist; keeping from them both Seals, or the Pedobaptifts in them one? supposing they have a Right, they are th Parties, and the wrong they receive from the Bapble to what they receive from the Pedobaptist. But upon the supposition they have no right, the Baptists deth wrong at all: And however this matter is, the Baptists Consistency with themselves, for in keeping away both shey may be safely call'd Seals, which is deny'd) it is been believe with Dr. Barlow Bishop of Lincoln, that they have to neither. But the Pedobaptists act inconsistently with the for they believe they have a Right to both, to the SE the Covenant in the Plural Number, and yet they give one. The very truth is that they have a Right to neither let it be noted that neither is Baptism or the Lord's Su call'd the Seals of the Covenant in holy Scripture; then ny other Considerations might lead us to see, that the Reasoning is very corrupt, and terminates in the most and unreasonable Conclusions.

Again they observe, that Infants were circumciz'd under and thence they infer by Consequence, that they ought tiz'd under the Gospel, for after this manner do they re

If Infants had a Right to Circumcifion under the Law, a Right to Baptilm under the Gospel, - But the first Therefore the last. I own it is very strange to me in learned Men, and of such great account, as are amon baptifts, should reckon this good Reasoning, specially fupposed they must needs know, how many several w Right to the Passouer under the Law, they have a R Lord's Supper under the Gospel; - But the first Therefore the last: The Reasoning is their own, but will not account the Conclusion to be just and honeit If none but the Males had a Right to Circumcifion und then none but the Males have a Right to Baptism un pel, - But the first is true - Therefore the laft, Reasoning is fill the same, but all must grant it ten unnatural and false Conclusion, and fairly shews us, Abrabam's Seed had any thing to do with Circumcifi alone from the Covenant that God made with him at from the express word of God: And therefore to argu to any supposed Seal, simply from the Interest they ha venant, is in my Opinion most ridiculous; fince eviden had an Interest in the Covenant, altho they had with the Seal.

Again the Pedobaptists observe, that our Lord tool in his Arms and blessed them, saying, of such is the Kin Hence they also inser Infants Right to Baptism by a Consequence as clear as the Sun, thus they reason Infants have a Right to the Kingdom of Heaven whier, they have a Right to Baptism which is the lesse is true—Therefore the last. That it may appear bly the Conclusion is deduc'd from the Premises, I give the Argument a Turn upon my good Friends the nce eir ther ke]

Inf

tt

ars firl

reli

ate

th ough ibly of the to y of ints are otifts a he W ll Citi s, sho World ne in rincipl onleq are r f deth

rifts oth!

s bed

y hav

ith th

SE

give

d's So

; the

at thi

mof

d unde

ought they re

e Law,

e firfti

me, th e amon

pecialiy

veral w

rft if In ave a h

he first i

wn, but honeit.

fion und

ptilm un

ne last,

news us,

ircumcibi

th him at

if they ha

nce eviden

Lord too

b is the Kin

Baptism by bey reals

eaven whi

y appear t

Friends th

If Infants have a Right to the Kingdom of Heaven which easer, then they have a Right to the Lord's Supper, which fer:—But the first is true—Therefore the last; the their own, and the Confequence at as naturally as in theirs, but to say the Truth of it, it ural in both.

the Pedobaptists do take notice, that in a certain Passage ure, Children (in an undetermined Sense) are said to be d from thence also they infer, Insants Right to Baptism, soning from the Words. If the Insants of believing Parents they have a Right to Baptism;—But the first is true;—the tast. Marvelously strange, that these should be the us of Men of Sense! for the Absurdity of such Reasoning, as by retorting the Argument—If the Insants of believing the holy, they have a Right to the Lord's Supper;—first is true—Therefore the last.

rsuaded that if they will allow themselves the Liberty are and think calmly of this Matter, they will plainly see they to use a Thousand such Arguments as these, the nee of the Major can never be desended. I shall only eir pretended Consequences one Step further, and take them for the present.

ke Notice that the divine Historian informs us, that whole were baptized by the Apostles, and thence they con-Infant's Right to Baptism may be deduced by an undesequence and that because Infants are parts of Houshm really astonish'd at the Dimsightedness of Men, and uch that ingenious Men should imagin, that what is taken instance is a just and natural Inference.

s manner do they argue from this Relation, whole Houlbpliced; and Infants are Parts of Housholds, - Therewhat? - I am fure it will not be just to say Thereought to be baptiz'd: For no fuch Conclusion lies in. ibly come from the Premises, more than I should inter ht to the Supper from their Right to the Paffover by 2 y of Reasoning, thus; whole Housholds eat the Passover at are parts of Housholds — Therefore — what? — Let wifts make the Conclusion what they will, so they make one: As for our Parts we have no need to fay more; he Weakness of this Reasoning, then that there were, Cities a vast number of Housholds in which there s should it then be thought strange that three great World fhould afford three Housholds in which there nts, One in the City of Corinth, said to be the chief City ne in Philippe the chief City of Macedonia, and one in inciple City of Aga: Where then lies and whence then onsequence; most certain it is, that what they call are none at all.

no

ac

Pr

A

not i

Lo

he 1

not i

Lord

evid

ters,

hom

ch w

faith

(ma e Prac

to of eridge yet ii

iples :

bring tivate

the t

ng all

embr

❽

I heartily wish that Christian Prudence would dired baptifts to confider whether they have just Reason to beli they are better Judges of Confequences, than were the Fr the primitive Churches for the first four Centuries, who a fee Infants Right to Baptism, as a Consequence couch thing premis'd in holy Scripture, and therefore they kept the dren Catecumens, until well instructed in the Faith, and rightly qualifi'd to receive that Sacrament, befides also the ble to remark, that when Infant's Baptism was first ber and in the fifth Age of Christianity had got a Party from to support it, and too Grong for the true Church to with doth not appear that it was brought in upon the foot of Co ces but rather from a Mittake in a prevailing Opinion in the that Baptism took away original Sin on which they imagi the Salvation of Infants dying in Infancy was precarious a to be doubted, unless they were baptized before their Deat I think may be most clearly collected from the Words of nons of those Councels which decreed its Practice, the fifth as Dr. Feremy Taylor Bishop of Down and Connor feems to a which also appears from the Magdeburgh History, was the I Councel held in the 5th Century, the Words of wholed .. That it is our Will that all that affirm, that young " receive everlasting Life, albeit they be not by the

of Grace or Baptism renewed; and that will not the Children, which are new born from their Mothers Wo be baptiz'd to the taking away of Original Sin,

That they be Anathematiz'd. Since this Canon curles those who affirm'd that yo dren should receive everlasting Life without Baptilm, there were such who taught that Infants might be fare Secondly fince the Canon condemns those who n tism to Infants, it's thence evident there were those who against Infants Baptism, and who taught that Bapti take away Original Sin as they did, and the apostate ever fince corruptly imagin'd, and on which Footit w fant's Baptilm was first brought in, and is ever fince con take away the Danger which attends the delay of B then what is there left to support the too early ad of it: If Infants may be fafe the' dying without it the casion to wrest and strain any Texts of Scripture to de patural Confequence to maintain an unnecessary Practice Observe from this Canon, how early the Pedobaptiful appearance of Pedobaptism, learned the way of poor Anabaptifts with their frightful Anathemas, wh has been continued in the succeeding Councels: The Trent curses them heartily, it's well for them poor He Curle causeles cames not; for ever fince the Beaft got World has wander'd after her, the Anabaptifts hare for the Antichristian Arrows to fly at.

ea th

o belie

he Fa

who co

ouch'd

cept th

andth

fo it is rst bro

o with n in the y imagi

rious. 2

eir Deat

ords of the first

ms to a

as the l

young by the S

hers Wo

that yo

aptilm, t

e who n

nose who

at Baptil

oot it W

fince cont

early add

out it the

v Practice

Pedobapti way of l

els: The poor He

Beaft got

ptifts bare

what hath here been premis'd, I hope the serious and truerate will see, that as there is neither Precept nor Presidy Scriptures to countenance Infant Baptism, so neither inferr'd by any just Consequence from any thing therein: And indeed it cannot be supposed, that these sacred Lines ountenance a Practice, which is in Contradiction to it's such to be sure that Practice is, as shall yet further from Arguments, taken from the Contrariety thereof to pute.

Argument the Twelfth.

the Language of holy Scriptures, that the Lord's Miniforwarrantably baptize any, but such whom they first by hing make Christ's Disciples, then the baptizing of In-Contradiction to the holy Scripture:

is the Language of holy Scriptures, that the Lord's Minot warrantably baptize any, but such whom they first saching make Disciples to Christ:

te the baptizing of Infants is in Contradiction to the holy Proposition, as indeed doth the whole History of the Apostles, so that I have nothing to support but the ce of the Major, which I shall do by the following torin the Power of the Lord's Ministers to make little Lord's Disciples by teaching them, then the Confebe Major is true:

not in the Power of the Lord's Ministers to make little Lord's Disciples by teaching them—Therefore &c. evident that the Command which our Lord Jesus gave lers, doth require them first to teach, and then to baphom they had taught, and by teaching made his Disch was according to their Practice before our Saviour's saith John 4, 1. he made and baptized more Disciples (mark) he first made Disciples, and then baptized in taught them, and thereby made them Disciples & Practice he recommends to his Ministers, and comto observe after his Ascention.

eridge on this Text saith " that tho the Word be transyet in the Original it properly imports to Disciple or iples; as if he should have said, go ye and Disciple all bring them over to be my Disciples, and baptize them; rivate Thoughts on the same Text he saith," the the words I take to be this; go ye and preach the ong all Nations, and endeavour thereby to bring them embracing of it, that leaving all Jewish Ceremonies

tu

or efe

Bap

bu

is e A

rife d A

whi

has ienc

arly

lilee u to he w remo nwor

his F en th d wit

Hivit

ccept

alcene descen

nted a t his

neff

tecei p

that tavel

₿

and Heathenish Idolatries they may profess my Name come my Disciples, receive the Truth and follow me, they do I charge you to baptize them in the Name of the Fa and boly Gooff; for the word doth not fignify to teach, but Disciples, denoting the same here as that dorh' upon the casion, John 4. 1. Jesus made and baptized more Discip John. And this is the Sense that all the antient Transfitte in, nor indeed will the Text it felf bear any other, fpeci that of teaching; for the the Apostles should have taught tions, yet they were not presently to baptize them unless came Disciples and Professors of the Doctrines that the taught. A Man may be taught the Doctrine of the Gol vet not believe it; and even tho' he should believe it, p " he openly professes bis Faith in it, he ought not prefend baptiz'd ; for without this outward Profession, the very of Christ cannot intitle a Man to this Privilege before Me doth before God; because we cannot know how any stand to Chrift, but by their outward Profession of him. 'Ti ward Poffession of Christ that intitles us to the inward " tual Grace - but it is the outward Profession of him only titules us to the outward vifible Sign in Baptifm &c. Thus far the Bishop, with which Dr' Whithy in his Em this Text well agrees; to which I defire my Reader will be

This is most certain, that it is with the Heart Man belief with the Mouth Confession of that Faith must be made to and whoever reads with proper attention, the History of the Apostles, will see that they thus understood their Col that they were first to make Men and Women Disciples by teaching them, and then to baptize them; which C always observed, Atts 2. 37 to 4r. They first preached to, the Hebrews, and when they had gladly received the W ed, and were persuaded to embrace the Lord Jesus, they tized. The 8th Chapter of the Ass shews us, that preach'd the Kingdom of Christ to the Samaritans, and were persuaded to believe Philip's Doftrine and to become Disciples, in making a Profession of that Faith, they we both Men and Women : The fame Method was oblet Erbiepian Eunuch'; also with Cornelius and those that wer as Att 10. The like with Lydia and the Faylor Att 16. Chapter shews us, the same Method was observ'd by Timotheur in the City of Corinth; they preached the Gol and persuaded them to believe it, and to make a Profet Paith, and to become Christ's Disciples; which done baptized both Men and Women. This Order was p fere'd almost generally for four hundred Years, and Church to this very Day. Justin Martyr's Apology is a vidence to the Practice of his time. He shews they People to believe the Doctrine preach'd to them, and Christ's Disciples, and then baptized them as the

me

ie, v

be Fa

buti

the I

Discipl Matie

Special aught

anless

hat the Gol

it, y refent

very

ore Me

n. Ti

inward

im only

his Exp

er will b

lan belie

nade to

tory of

heir Col

Disciples

which Co

reached

ed the W

lus, they us, that

ans, and to become

they we

that were

A# 16. 6

rv'd by Pa

ed the Gol

hich done

der was p

Years, and

sthey from, and

m as the

Orc.

them to do. This order our Conscience compels us who de Anabaptists, to observe with the utmost exactness in er, as believing otherwise to act, will be in Contradiction oly Scripture, which will as I conceive yet further appear following Argument.

Argument the Thirteenth.

the Person to be baptized, then the baptizing of Infants radiction to the holy Scriptures:

Law which commands Water Baptism, doth command in the Person to be baptized:

re the baptizing of Infants is in Contradiction ro the tures.

for of this Argument hath the whole of the new Testaestendit; for from thence it is manifest that the Comsaptism doth not only require an Action in the Minister but also it requires an Action in the Person to be bapis (and that most justly) expected to be active, as e Administrator. Acts 2. 38. Peter said, Repent and be start 16. Annanias said to Paul, Brother Saul, why tarrise and be baptized.

In the second se

with a pleasing and affecting admiration remark of them on this Subject. Math. 3.

With a pleasing and affecting admiration remark of the with a pleasing and affecting admiration remark of the with a pleasing and affecting admiration remark of the with a pleasing and affecting admiration remark of the with the solution of the with the fuafion of Mind that it behoves them to fulfil all Ri nels, and which they cannot do without it.

True it is John the Baptist endeavour'd to accomodate his much as might be to the Conveniencies of the People, for not always continue in one Place; he staid for a Time int dernels of Judea at Jordan for the Benefit of Jerusalem and the Regions round about; from whence the People, properly active, came out to him and were baptized of him confessing their Sins; from thence he removed to Bethabate Jordan for the Advantage of the adjacent Country, and continued there for a Time, he went to Enon near Sales Places where there was much Water, Rivers proper for Administration of the Ordinance, and so well suited to the of his Ministry; for a Bason, the Popish Invention of the Century was not thought of in his Time.

Now as from this Relation of John's moving from place we learn that Christ's Ministers must accomodate the much as may be, and in the best manner they can to the ency of Mankind, so we learn from Men's going out to hi Quarters to receive Baptism from him in the place where nitter'd it, that it is God's Expectation that Menshall in cept of the best Accomodations that Ministers can give must be willing if need so requires, to travel many Mile Baptism rather than to be without it, for this is most ce the Law which commands Baptism, doth as well committee to baptize; and accordingly they were active seen already, and as the following Tests of Scripture place. Math. 3. throughout. John 1. 28. Chap 3. 23. Chap. 16. 13.

e I

aw

e P

diE

Law e Pe

e th

ures

gue. nitel

to li

nfini

vely

eady

to M

eaks

(hall as to

Justic

or bin

most uffice

nre is ect to er of

with to hea

The Commission doth not oblige Ministers to baptize without the Consent of the Party; and if they could Force would be of no saving Advantage to the Party must themselves move freely to God-ward; for religionce is founded in Personal Per

The Commission doth as well call for Obedience in be baptized, as in the Minister to whom the Commission it is their Business to be active in their application for Baptism, and thereupon Ministers are ty'd by the to give Baptism to such, against whom they have no tions. All which consider'd, the Minor Proposition have nothing to make good but the Consequence of to which Purpose I further Argue.

If little Infants be altogether passive in the Sacrams and have it not in their Power to give any astive Christ therein, then the Consequence of the Major is ate his

11 Ri

e for ne in t

lem an

eople,

of him

et habara

ry, and

r Salen

per for d to the

of the m' place

are the

to the

out to hi

Ce where an give

ny Mile

most ce

] commi

ds an Ad

re active

pture pla

3. 23.

to baptize

ey could pe Party

for relig

Ar. Aberna

nation to

dience in

e Commit

pplication

y'd by th

y have no

position

lequence o ne Sacrame

any active

Major is the Infants are altogether passive in the Sacrament of Baphave it not in their Power to give any active Obedience therein:—Therefore &c. as was to be proved, and which ay otherwise be proved thus.

biolutely infignific nt, in which the Soul or inward Man her passive, or without spiritual Activity to God-ward, confequence of the Major is true, know, that in Baptism the Infant is altogether passive, so tar, as it discovers its Distinct to the total by crying, which is it has no Inclination.

he poor innocent Infant is paffive in Body, it is also so in goo Consent to the thing: Now how acceptable to God can be; every Man should wifely consider, and judge udgment.

mike this Matter yet more plain, and give a greater e Reasoning, I shall state the foregoing Argument other-aw which requires Water Baptism, doth speak precepe Person to be baptiz'd, then the Baptism of little Infants diction to the holy Scriptures:

law which requires Water Baptism, doth speak precep-the baptizing little Infants is in Contradiction to the ures.

d the Consequence of the Major of this Argument, nitely wife and just God did never speak by any Law to little Infants, then the Consequence of the Major infinitely wife and just God did never speak by any wely to little Infants: — Therefore &c. as was to eady observed that the Gospel of Christ doth speak to Mankind, commanding them to be baptized, as eaks preceptively to Ministers commanding them to shall we entertain such a wild, and unbecoming No-as to suppose that it would consist with his infinite Justice, to make a Law which should be binding to or binding to any who want the Power of Obedience; most unreasonable to suppose it, because such a Law ustice bear any Penalty, for a Subject is unpunishable are is impossible; hence we say, that Infants and est to no Law, and the Reason is plain, because they et of exercising their Reason. That glorious God with, is more just than to command blind Men to to hear, or dumb Men to speak; for just Commands

Man shall say that little Infants are liable to any Punish account of their not being baptized or that Baptism being beyond the Time of Infancy shall be attended with any quences, dangerous to little Infants; I must believe, that Man's Ignorance is too great to find a Center any where but Very hard is that Man's Thought, who has a hard The a little harmless Infant, of whom Christ hath said of such is dom of Heaven: And turther, that who sever is not converted a like a little Child, he shall in no wife enter into it. From the must conclude, that the Law which commands Water Bapi command some to be baptized, but doth not command loss baptized; and that consequently the Practice of baptize is not only without a Command from Christ, but it is diction to it, which speaks preceptively to those who are jests of Baptism. And as the Practice of baptizing Instantary to the holy Scripture, so also it is contrary to the Practice of the primitive Christians in the first and pure the Gospel, as I have already shewn, and shall now furt guing against Infant's Right to Baptism, taken from the the primitive Christians.

Argument the Fourteenth.

ha

eat no'

St.

urti

be

is gi

ptif ift, i

the

nd t

ut r

the Age

, in

Dr

tru

the C

and

nerall mini, d the

iden

uftin

If it was the Opinion of the primitive Christians in the purest Ages of the Gospel, that it was too early to admit tism in Infancy, then the baptizing of Infants is both the Sense and Practice of the primitive Christians, in the purest Ages of the Gospel.

But it was the Opinion of the primitive Christians, and purest Ages of the Gospel, that it was too early to Baptilm in Infancy.

Therefore the baptizing of Infants is both contrary to and Practice of the primitive Christians in the first and of the Gospel.

I am persuaded that those Gentlemen, in Opposition stand, will allow that this Argument is good, and multiposition be defended; wherefore in Defence of it Is purest Ages of the Gospel, to keep their Children until they were well instructed in the Articles of the Faith, before they baptized them; then it is evident the Opinion of the primitive Christians, that it was administer Baptism in Infancy.

But it was the Custom of the ancient Christians and purest Ages of the Gospel, to keep their Childre until they were well instructed in the Articles of the

before they baptized them;

ider'd

milho

being th any

e, that ere but

d The

such is

om the er Bapi and Infa ba ptizin

it is i

who are g Infan

to the

nd pure

ow furt

rom the

enth.

ans in the

to admi

is both o

hriftians,

early to ontrary to first and

)pposition

, and mu

e of it Ife

ians, in the Children

ricles of th

hat it was hristians i

les of the

Christians, that it was too early to administer Baptism, as was to be proved.

The take the forgoing Argument more briefly, thus.

ght not to account those Persons the Suoj ets of Water to whom the primitive Christians in the first and purest he Gospel deny'd it.

primitive Christians in the first and purest Ages of the ofe we ought not to account them the Subjects of it.

It it it is that any of the candid and knowing among aprifts, will put me upon the Proof of the Minor Probecause there is such a vast Number of the Learned of Party, who do not only allow it, but have also plainly rely affirm'd it. I shall content my self with mentioning ry few of them.

in his primitive Christianity gives us a lage Account of cumens in the early Ages of the Gospel, and how the had their Children by that laudable Practice of Catem well instructed in the Articles of the Christian Creed y baptized them; Baptism being delay'd to several of they were thirty Years of Age; and to this Account eat Number of our English Writers, as well as other no' all Pedobaptists; as every Man will find, who for nd the Truth's Sake, will do himself the Favour of Stennets's Answer to Mr. David Russen, Mr. Benj. Keach's 1'd, and Dr. Gale's Remarks on Dr. Walls History of Infants be called for upon this Point, shall be Curcellans, whose is given in these Words.

philm was not known in the World in the two first Ages is, in the third and fourth it was approved by a few, at the fifth and following Ages it began to obtain in divers and therefore we observe this Rite indeed as an antient ut not as an Apostolical Tradition. And in another place the Custom of baptizing Infants did not begin before Age after Christ, and there appears not the least Foot-, in the two first Centuries.

ant and Confession of Curcellaus doth well agree with Dr. Barlow Bishop of Lucoln, in his Letter to Mr. truth is (saith he) I believe, that Infant's Baptism the Church in the second Century how or by whom and in the third and sourth it began to be practic'd, terally; for sure I am, that in the first Ages they were mini, and then Illuminati, that is, they were first Cad then Bapriz'd.

d then Bapriz'd.
idence of these two great Men, I shall subjoin the use in Martyr to the Emperor Antoninus Pius, on the Behalf half of the Christians, in which Apology he gives this of their Practice.

"As many as are persuaded and do believe those things them to be true, we admonish them to Fast and Pray, Fast and Pray along with them; then we bring them to ter, and in the Name of the Father, Son and Holy Gho are washed in the Water.

Surely it must be admitted, that this Apology of Justin doth shew what was the Practice of the Church in his To which corresponds with the Practice of the baptized (commonly call'd Anabaptists) at this Day. For they are same Opinion with him, as also of Basis the Great, who are viz. "Faith and Baptism are two Means of Salvation by allied and inseparable; for Faith is perfected by

" and Baptism is founded upon Faith.

Here I might bring in a Clond of Evidences in Suppor Minor Proposition of this last Argument, all Ge tlemen and Credit; but I refer my Reader to Mr. Fofeph Stenn Keach, Col. Henry Danvers, Dr. Gale, Delaun's Plea for Conformift, and shall here only add that memorable So thenatius, so particularly noted in History, which I think m felf alone be sufficient; The Story is this. When Athan but a Boy and playing with a Number of other Boys, who with himself were Catecumens, these Boys in their Pla themselves into a Kind of Church Body; one Part of the fented the Church, who chose Athanatius for their Bishop; Part of them represented the Catecumens, and these were be examin'd by Athanatius the Bishop, to be catechiz'd as C for Baptism; upon which, they answering to the Satisfact new made Bishop and Church, in prosecution of their eatins went with them into the River and baptiz'd them.

ri

Cel

Pra

ce

ai

an

e

it

n ( ra & rift

the

e. a

ath

nab

at th

well

ifm

ngs

This Story doth plainly shew us, what the Custom of the was in Athenatius's Time, in Reference to the administration areast Ordinance of the Gospel, both with respect to the

and Manner of it's administration.

As to the Mode of administration, that it was not by a little Water upon the Face, or any other part of the Popish Cannon in the thirteenth Century makes sufficiently was perform'd in a River, as in the Apostles Time: And Subjects of Baptism, it is evident they were such as had be Station of Catecumens, and so made acquainted with the Christian Religion. Of which number of Catecuments of the Christian Religion. Of which number of Catecuments of the Christian Religion. Of which number of Connor owns in his Liberty of Prophesy p. 330 to 333. Where serve the Bishop says that the Necessity of Infants Baptisher the Bishop says that the Necessity of Infants Baptisher the Bishop says that the Necessity of Infants Baptisher the Bishop says that the Necessity of Infants Baptisher the Bishop says that the Necessity of Infants Baptisher the Bishop says that the Necessity of Infants Baptisher the Bishop says that the Necessity of Infants Baptisher the Bishop says that the Necessity of Infants Baptisher the Riverse in his Plant for the Necessity of Infants Baptisher the Riverse in his Plant for the Necessity of Infants Baptisher the Necessity of Infants Baptisher the Riverse in his Plant for the Necessity of Infants Baptisher the Nece

Mr. Delaune in his Plea for the Non-Conformit ban a learned French Man to evidence that Baptism in the Times was delay'd to the Children of Christian Parent of an advanc'd Age; which he collects from the Hiftory of Valentinian, Gratian, Theodofius, who were in the third es this h Century; in whose time a corrupt opinion obtain'd e, that Sins after Baptism could not be forgiven, which things Reason they deferr'd their Baptism until they thought e near their Death, as fearing they might commit Sin

> Authorities are more than sufficient to secure the Minor n of my Argument, which affirms that the primitive Chrife first and purest Ages of the Gospel, did refuse Water o little Infants, and from which we may justly infer the what is affirm'd in the Major, which is, that Baptism to be administer'd to them; and the' we do not pin upon the Sleeves of the great Men of those Times, but holy Scriptures the Ground of our religious Persuafion. ink that a Continuance of the Practice of baptizing Infants too little Regard to the gray Hairs and grave Opinife reverend Grandfathers of the Christian Church. ow apply my felf to reason against Infants Right to Bapthe Inconveniencies into which it leads Christian Comwhich are many, but I shall mention only a few of them.

Argument the Fifteenth.

ractice of baptizing Infants, hath a natural Tendency ristian Communities into Confusion and Disorder, then t it is a Practice which is not of God, who hath defelf a God of Order and not of Confusion. ractice of baptizing of Infants, hath a natural Tenden. Christian Communities into Consusion and Disorder; e 50%. ce of the Minor Proposition I further argue.

clice of baptizing Infants doth put it out of the Powan Communities to know, whether several of the Meme Communities were ever baptiz'd or not; then it is it is a Practice, which hath a natural Tendency to n Communities into Confusion and Disorder. ractice of baptizing of Infants, doth put it out of the ristian Communities to know whether several of the those Communities were ever baptiz'd or not; e. as was to be proved. Consequently it is not of ath declar'd himself to be a God of Order and not nableness of this Argument will appear, when it is at there are a vast Number of Souls in all the Nations well as in other Quarters of the World, who have had isim, but what has been privately administer'd; priogs (so call'd) being now so very common among

d Pray hem to oly Gho of Fustion his To otized (hey are at, who

Salvation Red by

n Suppor e tlemen febb Stenne lea for t Table Sto I think m hen Athan Boys, who their Play art of the ir Bishop; hele were chiz'd as C e Satistacti of their ! 'd them. ustom of t dministrat

spect to th as not by rt of the kes fufficie Cime: And ch as had t red with t r of Cateco

Bishop of 333. where fants Bapti ge after Chi formist brin ptilm in th

Bian Parent

❽

Laws of the respective Communities of Protestants both of and Scotland; such private Baptisms as whereof no Regis kept, and that some by Papists some by Protestants of the Denominations, some by Protestants in Popish Countries, which the Law of God and Nature gives them a Right forc'd to do all they do in Religion in the most private they possibly can, and besides all these, there be several of bad any Baptilm at all.

Now of the numerous Quantity of Perfons thus circum there be feveral who travel from one Country to another Quarter of the Earth to another; some are carry'd by their from their native Country, to a place very far diffant, w are yet Infants, and then their Parents are taken away in by Death leaving 'em absolute Strangers in a strange Place, a grown up to Age, leveral of these travel again into other continuing without Christian Communion until well advant and then applying themselves to some Christian Congregation Question be put, whether they were ever baptiz'd or not! not able to give any fatisfactory Answer, nor is there any in Nature for any Knowledge of it to any reasonable Cent nor to much as to a rational Probability: I am persuadd it was made a Question to several, whether they ever were or not, they lye under such an uncertainty, as not to be the fuch a tolerable intolerable Answer as this, viz. I heard m Man fay, that he heard my Mother's Maid fay, that he metry as one of the Milk Maids when I was christned by Prieft in Penfiloania.

no

E

or

cu

rr

Mit

th

ptil

un

ilm

etri Pead

iten.

rear

he 1

ean

cour

dra d in

ided pish

than inte

rines er B

be

Now is it possible for any Man of Sense to suppose, can be Gospel or Christian Order in the midst of such a this is, or that such a Practice can be of God, which hath to lead Christian Communities into it; if any Man shall finall wish he may fall into a better way of thinking.

But to pals forward, this Confusion with which I he Practice of baptizing Infants, bad as it is, it is not so Inconveniencies into which it hurries those Christian Co whose Practice it is; for it puts them under a Necessian mancing that, which they (consider'd as Protestants) a gainst as Errors in the Church of Rome, as may appear towing Argument.

Argument the Sixteenth.

That Dostrine or Practice which puts Protestant Commerce and Necessity of building with one hand what Consider them to indeavour the Destruction of with the other, is to the Errors of Rome, cannot be of God:

Christian Baptism.

47

e Dostrine and Practice of baptizing Infants, doth put Communities under a necessity of building with one at Conscience compels them to indeavour the Destruction be other:

re the Doctrine and Practice of baptizing Infants cannot e good the Minor Proposition, I further argue.

offrine or Practice which puts Protestant Communities ecessity of countenancing the Roman Antichristian Baph they most justly protest against, is a Doctrine or Pracputs Protestant Communities under a necessity of building Hand, what Conscience compels them to endeavout thion of with the other, in Opposition to the Errors

Doftrine and Practice of baptizing of Infants, doth put Communities under a necessity of countenancing the tichristian Baptism, which they most justly protest the Doctrine and Practice of baptizing of Infants, is and Practice which puts Protestant Communities under building with one Hand, what Conscience compels eavour the Destruction of with the other, in Oppo-Errors of Rome.

or of this Argument be deny'd, the following Argucure it.

tine and Practice which puts Protestant Communities stity of countenancing the Roman Antichristian Sign the use of Cream, Spittle, Salt &c. in the A minispissing is a Doctrine and Practice which puts Protestant under a necessity of countenancing the Roman Docism, which they most justly protest against. Etrine and Practice of bap izing of Infants is such a

Ctrine and Practice of bap izing of Infants is such a Practice as puts Protestant Communities under a netenancing the Roman Antichristian Sign of the Cross, team, Spittle, Salt &c. in the Administration of he Doctrine and Practice of baptizing of Infants, is eand Practice, as puts Protestant Communities under countenancing the Roman Doctrine of Baptism.

drawn up against the Practice of baptizing of Indian this Argument, and the Argument it self will in this Argument, and the Argument it self will ided it shall appear that Protestant Communities pish Proselites into their Communion, without any than what they had from Antichristian Rome: But anted, for that a Roman Catholick renouncing the times and Practices of Rome, he shall be received for Baptism, than that which he had from Rome; note be that which Protestant Communities do solemn

e Can th of Regill of the F Con Right rivate eral m circum other, h by their ant, wh

Place, a other C ladvand ngregati
or not!
ere any p ble Centi

persuaded ever were it to beat heard m heard fi is that fi is the d fuppole, of fuch Conich hathat Man shall thinking, which I hat is not so hristian Con Necessity testants) do a pear the conic appear to the conic eenth.

hat Confee he other, is protest against, and that most justly too, on the account of ny Superstitions which Apostate Rome hath tack'd to it aim before. All which Anti-scriptural, Anti-christian Superflim Protestants by continuing the Practice of baptizing of la under a necessity of countenancing : For should they do and deny the Roman Baptism to be good, and upon the ing Popish Proselites should give them what they belie right Scriptural, or Christian Baptism, they would probe upon themselves a Charge of re baptizing, and fall into rous Herely of Ana baptism, a Crime for which no Abid be hoped for from Rome, tho' it be remark'd that the Greek notwithstanding Pedoboptists; yet believing that Rantijm, ling a little Water upon the Face, is not the manner of tring of Baptism, they refuse to communicate with the the Account of their not being rightly baptiz'd, and re learn that the Greeks are afraid to be call'd Anabaptifis.

I conceive this is a Point on which the Pedobaptiss show some of their serious Thoughts, for most certain they either believe the Roman Baptism is good, or they they do believe it to be good, should they not then put however at least, surely they ought not to protest against do not believe it to be good, why do they give so much nance to it? why do they not with the Greeks resule to cate with them, until they are baptized, as they app holy Scriptures doth direct? perhaps some solid Thoughts Subject may lead them to see what the Practice of serious solid subject may lead them to see what the Practice of serious solid serious subject may lead them to see what the Practice of serious serious serious subject may lead them to see what the Practice of serious se brings them to.

Oh how many and how great are those Inconvenie which this groundless, this Anti-feriptural this useless ficant thing, call'd Infant's Baptism, doth lead Christinities. Groundless I call it, because it hath nothing in ture or Reason to support it. Anti scriptural I call it, contrary to the Scripture, as I have already shewn, a further shew.

Useless and infignificant I call it, because the litter no manner of Benefit from it; for if it dies in it's last vation is secur'd without it; and if it pass the Times has no spiritual Privilege from it, since it cannot be a the holy Communion of the Church, until an inlight standing, and solemn Promises shall qualify it for the

To what I have already mentioned as Inconvenient leads Christian Communities, I may further add as worse than the former it puts them under an unantity to cast away Christian Discipline, which is not opel's. Honour, but the Churches Bulwark and one of Ornaments. A heavy Charge, but the following conceive makes it appear to be just, which I hope tist will consider.

oul, nowle to Bap Propo tristia Discip

16 to It

ke

Doc

mr

berg

o b

the

the

e in tha

full

Ico

ther

ncho

all F

Glory

lieve

with eth, es, the

rely Mem

g, an cedne

Argument the Seventeenth.

Doctrine and Practice of baptizing Infants, doth put it Power of Christian Communities, to keep up Christian in those Communities, then it is a Doctrine and Practice of God:

Doctrine and Practice of Infant's Baptism, doth put it out, ver of Christian Communities, to keep up Christian Disthole Communities — Therefore &c.

good the Minor Proposition, I further argue offrine and Practice of baptizing Infants, doth lay ommunities under a necessity of bearing with those things bers of those Communities which by the Christian Laws to be born with; then the Doctrine and Practice of Infants doth put it out of the Power of Christian Comkeep up Christian Discipline in those Communities:

Doctrine and Practice of baptizing Infants, doth lay ommunities under a necessity of bearing with those things bers of their Communities, which by the Christian Laws to be born with.

the Doctrine and Practice of baptizing Infants doth the Power of Christian Communities to keep up Christe in those Communities, as was to be proved.

that in undertaking the Defence of this Charge, I full of tender and Christian Compassion to the Pedolould wish with all my Soul, for the Sake of many them, that the Charge was false: But we have so many acholy and notorious Instances of the Truth thereof, as all Parties concern'd to take the Shame to themselves, Glory to God, in owning that the Charge is too true. lieve that every Man who deals justly with Christ, oul, in paying a proper Regard to the Honour of Renowledge that this Argument carries force in it against o Baptism, provided the Article of Charge contain'd Proposition, can be made good : If it be fairly proved hillian Communities under a necessity of casting a Discipline, in bearing with those Things in the Mem Communities, which by the Christian Laws ought with, but this is too easily proved.

eth, That Childhood and Youth are Vanity. And the es, that while we are Children, we speak and att as Chilmil we become Men, we do not put away Childish things. In Children have their Childish ways of acting and arely we must all agree in this, that all Christians Members of Christian Churches, should be Men 5, and Children only in Malice, and other parkedness.

H 2

If

the little n it's lafe he Time of nnot be a til an inlig y it for the nconvenient her add as r an unavech is not of and one of the little not of and one of the little not of following!

ich I hope

t of le me Litin

f Infi do o n the belie

probal

into the Absol

Greek (

intim,

ner of ind ye ptills-

ptifts 1

certain

they o

nen pra

against fo mud

efule to ney app

id Thu

tice of P

convenie

uselels

d Christi

nothingin

call it,

Thewn, a

It is known by fad Experience that when we pass the Childhood, we too generally become like an unteam'd He accustomed to the Yoak, and it is very rare to find one bear the Yoak in Youth : For that they rather choole tory ly into all the Follies and idle Extravagancies of it, all whi Christian Communities who contend for Infant's Baptile. der a necessity of bearing with, in those who by Baptism ne Members of their Communities. They must not only be the Vanity of Childhood, until about ten Years of Age, thence forward, with all the intollerable Excesses of untage fuch as Swearing Cu. fing, calling one another scandalous Names; fighting with one another; devoting themselves and other tale Flesh pleasing Pastimes, and that on the la as well as other Days, for all Days are alike to them, for Scarcely possible for a small Number of Sober Men and W meet together in the most peaceable Manner for divine without being disturb'd by those young Pedobaptists, the bers of Christian Communities

This is what I have been made to experience in that ety, among whom I worship the God of my Fathers, not ing we are under a Government as tender of tender Con can reasonably be desir'd, and under Laws calculated to us our religious as well as civil Liberties; but also what God or Man can tame them, for it is their Sport, and to us they seem to have Pleasure in taking Advantage of Condition to which an Enemy has reduc'd us.

It's an occasion of Lamentation to observe how thougare of God and Christ, how miserably regardless of Judgment, and without any outward Sign of one serious of Eternity; and yet all these are Members of Christinities, and never laid under Church Censure for any oregularities, so dishonourable to the Gospel of Christinus to the Christian Name; so contrary to the Christian Law; so disagreeable to a baptismal Vow, and so in hurtful to their own Souls; yet as they grow up in Wickedness, they seem to be possess'd with a false destroy whilst persuaded that in their Baptism they were made Christ, Children of God, and Inheritors of the Kingdom

Doth not our Lord Jesus by his Apostles strictly of withdraw from every Brother who walketh disorderly the Church purged of the Leaven of Wickedness, by a profane Persons to Satan, for the destruction of the Fing that evil communication corrupts good Manners, and that wen will I ven the whole Lump. And shall all those Sisters be born with, in all their disorderly walking? O Heavens! at the Consustion and intollerable Incommunication this needless Practice of baptizing Infants dother than Communities.

Arind kind ns gr betre

if

in

nd

lit

inf

et:

n ur

n to

Doe nd u

to rt a

Sina Sina apri aded

that the ld b

arties fay that Baptism was instituted for the solemn Adof the Party baptized into the visible Christian Church, rful Admission! Infants by Baptism are made Members Church and yet are no Members of it; they are in the and yet out of the Church; they are Members of the without having a Right to the Communion of the Church, being Subject to the Government of the Church, or lyecensured by her Authority for any of their Misdemeannazing Church Membership!

Pedobaptifts! do you keep the Members of your Church Communion, when they pass the Age of seven, eight, ars? Is it because you think they are not fit for Christian ion, because of that vain idle Life you observe them to this be indeed the Cause, I pray what good doth their do them at the same Time? what are they the better for efluaded to take Tertullians Advice and defer their Baptifm know what Baptism is, until they are regenerated and pant with Chrift for themselves, that they may be the their Baptism, and grow better after it; in dying to Sin to Righteousness, and not as it is with those whom you if you baptize at all) who never fail to grow worfe and ing daily to that which is good, and rifing to a Life of nd Profaness, and so they continue until they are coneed, which doth not happen to Multitudes of them; for lity of them continue in their Wickedness to the end of All which confider'd, makes way for me to argue yet inft Infant's Right to Baptism.

Argument the Eighteenth.

thine which makes Persons growing worse and worse afunavoidable, rather than better and better; to live in to die to Sin, cannot be found Doctrine: Doftrine of Infant's Baptism doth make Persons grownd worse after Baptism unavoidable, rather than better to live in, rather than die to Sin-Therefore &c. rt and make good the Minor Proposition, I further argue.

firine which makes it unavoidable, that all the Sins kind becomes guilty of, must come after Baptism, doth ns growing worse and worse after Baptism unavoidable, better and better; to live in, rather than die to Sin. octrine of Infant's Baptism doth make it unavoidable, Sins which Mankind becomes guilty of must needs ipilm: Therefore &c. as was to be proved. aded that none will misunderstand me, and suppose I herethat the baptizing of Infants has in it felf any causal Inthe Lives of fuch as were baptiz'd in Infancy fo as ld be the Cause of that Wickedness, into which they

the T 'd He one w e to tur all whi aptilm, ifm we only b Age, dalous emfelver n the Lo em, lot and W divine tifte, the untam

in that | ners, non nder Con atad to las what rt, and w antage o ow thoug dels of ne feriou of Christia for any o f Christ; e Christia and fo in row up in false deftro vere made

e Kingdom Aricely d disorderly. dness, by d of the Fl ers, and the all those h walking! ble Income fants dota d 00

on

D

Tru

ow

ari

ra

em

ong,

not pon

Dos

Pc. :

ticle

nit

n un

hous

rof :

l Der

wh

eligi

ke u

g: Si

uth,

n fixi have

thers

nat in ➂

able necessity of Sining; for I mean no more than that it put under an unavoidable necessity of committing all the Sins it commit after Baptism, because it is impossible for them to cany of that Sin before; for being baptiz'd in Insancy without of Action, without Power of Speech, and without Power of Reason, it was impossible for them to commit sin

And now let us observe how vastly different the Doctrine dobaptism is from the Scriptural Doctrine of Baptism. The trine of Pedobaptism, as we have seen, makes Persons growing and worse after Baptism unavoidable; but the Scriptural of Baptism is, that Persons baptized are to be accounted Sin, and that it is justly expected that they should live may therein, but that being planted together with Christ, in the of his Death and Resurrection, they are supposed dead and of them it is required, that they should rise with him to and holy Life, to seek those things that are above, through of the Operation of God. Rom. 6 throughout. Col. 2.

And Chap. 3. 1. 2.

But secondly it may be observ'd from some Writers of it baptists, that in the fourth Century an Opinion prevai fome Christians, (in which number are plac'd the Emperor tine, Valentinian, Theodosius) that Sins committed after Bapti not be forgiven, mistaking the Sense of the Apostles Word 4. 6. In Consequence of which they defert'd their Bapi they thought they were near their Death; which by the w us, they were very far from being of Opinion, that Infants Subjects of Baptism: For it is impossible such Persons fond of baptizing Infants, who were persuaded that Sinso after Baptism could not be forgiven; because such a Pring cludes, that a greater Advantage would arise from the dela tism to old Age, than from too early an Administration the Pedobaptists seem to run, and that most extravagant contrary Extream, as if it was their Opinion that Sins before Baptism could not be forgiven, and that in Conseque of, they resolve to administer it to Infants, before they Power to commit Sin at all.

The true Mean between those Extreams may be seen it tice of the baptiz'd Churches, who are call'd Anabaptis Arica Adherence to the Doctrines of the Apostles, expressions's Advice to defer Baptism, until the Person baptism that it is, and to what a holy way of living it binds his far as it is possible all the Sins a Man commits may be Baptism, and yet that he may be as early in his Applit, as possibly may be, that God may be remembred in that Men may give the best of their Days to him unto ought to be given; that from the Time of their Bapt be their Resolution to live to God in Righteousness to hat a just regard to the Credit of the Gospel, and of the Religion whereof the Son of God is the Author, would nall the Pedobaptifts, specially those who are Protestants, peartily on this Subject, and carefully fearch out the Truth and not rest satisfied in what was done for them in Infancy, their own Consent, as if those few Drops of Water with ey were so early RANTIZED, were sufficient to be hottest Flames of the Wrath of God, and to atone ofe Sins they become guilty of, after they pass the time of Infancy; too, too many of them feem to act as if fome fuch Thoughts as these: A Confideration whereof. further Argument against Infant's Right to Baptism.

Lord Jesus Christ.

Argument the Nineteenth.

Doftrine which puts Persons at least under a Temptation. er a necessity, to receive either Error for Truth, or Truth ong Foundation, is an unfound and dangerous Doctrine. Doctrine of Infant Baptism, doth put Persons under a on at least, if not under a necessity, to receive either Truth, or Truth upon a wrong Foundation : - There-owing Argument secures the Minor Proposition.

Arine which puts Persons under a Temptation at least. ra necessity, to take up their Satisfaction in what was em in Infancy, without ever inquiring whether it was ong, is a Doctrine which puts them under a Temptation not under a necessity, to receive either Error for Truth, pon a wrong Foundation:

Doctrine of Infant's Baptism, is such a Doctrine :-

c. as was to be proved.

ticle of Impeachment be proved true, the Conclusion nit will be true also, viz. that the Doctrine of Infants n unfound and dangerous Doctrine.

hought and Observation may remark, that among the of Souls which compose the Body of the Pedobaptists, Denominations of Christians, there be whole Legiwhose Understandings were never consulted in the eligion; yea such as never made Choice of Religion ke up their Satisfaction in that Religion which has for them, and which they never examin'd whether g: So that there is too much Reason to believe, that they profess was never the Result of any regular Inuth, but seem, year ather more than seem to rest per-n fixing what Religion they have (if we can justly have any) upon this Foundation, that it is the Rethers were in possession of, when they came into the pat into which they were baptized, and thereby make ny u it pu ins t n to d ithou ut Po octrine m. T growin tural I unted nit Sin

live no in the dead h him throug

Col. 2. ters of t prevai Emperor er Bapti es Words eir Bapu by the w at Infants Persons hat Sinso ch a Princ n the dela iftration o ravaganti hat Sins n Conlegue fore they be feen it Anabaptil les, expre erson bapti its may be his Appl embred in him unto their Bapti teousnels th

it most lamentably evident, that they have no other N Religion, than what lies in the very Name of the Par belong to.

nother is a Christian for no better Reason, and sucks in Re his I fancy, as he doth the Milk of his Mother's Breast

Ask one Man what Religion he is of? and he will anse a Roman Catholick, ask him for what Reason he is of a ligion? and he knows nothing of the matter, only his Farone and his Mother, and so was all his Family; and it is ligion into which he was baptized, and which he was brown, and he knows right well (tho' he knows not his right from his left) that the Church of Rome is the holy Mother and is sure that she cannot Err, and that therefore it is his believe as the Church believes, let her believe what she will over this is a thing of which he is very certain, that who sure to hear the Voice of this the true Church of Christoners'd Schismatick, a damo'd Heretick, and deserves to Fiesh pick'd off his Bones with burning Pincers.

3

d

out

P

ur

nt,

tati

of

nife

ing I

w

in (

Rel God

b is

has ie Ki

lid t Me

ver i

as th

of

the I

ere b oly So

e Re

Ask another Man what Religion he is of? and he ans a Protestant: Ask him whether he be a Presbytevian, Indebend baptift, a Quaker, or what denomination of Protestants he be He answers he is neither a Presbyterian, Independant, Anabati er, but he is a Protestant: Alk him are not Presbyterians, In Anabaptifis and Quakers, Protestants, as well as others? No those that are Protestants, are of the Church of England by tablish'd, as for others, they are Presbyterians, Independants, or Quakers, but they are no Protestants. Well, thus stand ter with respect to all those who are turn'd out of the N Protestants to shift for themselves as well as they can, an this Protestant, for what Reason he is a Protestant? and will answer with an Oath or Curse, that he was baptized Faith that his Parents before him were of that Religi is fure it is right, and that because it is impossible the learned Men who are Protestants should be mistaken.

Ask another Man, what Religion he is of? and (to respectively some of the solution of the solu er N

e Par

is born in Rel

aft.

] anfa

is of i ais Fat

nd it is vas bro

his rig

Mother

it is his

The will

at who

of Chris

rves to he and

Independ

ents he be

Anabasti

terians, In ers? No

England by

ependants,

thus stand

of the N

y can, and

mt? and baptized

at Religio

offible th

ne Manner

biterian. d an Indepen I was bapte

that begat

one another

e I was both Mon (Qu

n right aveel

of the Kirk

of Salvatin

venant, sign

limisters, all

aken. ind (to re

an ignorant Loon of a Fel'ow that supposes all of them could be and that the Kirk of Scotland is not God's Kirk, that none of the pious Pedobaptifts, will misunderstand my intepresenting many of their Party to express themselves othy and loofe manner, as if it was my Defign to reproach Body, and fasten it as a charge upon all, for I affure my is far from me, as believing there be many of them who fear an Oath, and do pay a spiritual Regard to the teachrift and his holy Evangelists, forbidding all Corruption fation, and firstly requiring that our Tea should be Tea, lay, Nay, for that what seever is more than this, cometh of Evil, erly inconfistent with the pure Laws, and teachings of y. I declare I have herein no other view, than lovinge ke, and to become a friendly Adviser to such Persons from themselves to such a loose way of Speech as is a the Christian Name, and a Disgrace to that Profession of Christ, Men that can scarcely talk one quarter of at any Subject, without belching forth full Mourhfuls of as these (not fit to be us'd in common Conversation)

Conscience, Deel tak me, by my Sol, as I hope to be saved, and om which Custom I heartily wish that those Men who d to be faved, and are under a Protession of Religion. our to break themselves, for fear least a Continuance of Practice should be a hindrance of their Salvation.

um to the Profecution of my Defign in the Defence of nt, in shewing how Pedobaptism doth put Persons unation at least, if not under a necessity to receive either, of Truth, or else Truth upon a wrong Foundation. aded that Men of Confideration will fay with me, it is nifest that there are vast Numbers of the Pedobaptists, ing themselves with what was done for them in Infanwhat Religion they have upon Truft, without proper in order to the Information of their Understanding. Religion they have, and what religious Obedience God, is very far from being founded in personal Per-b is the only thing that can make it acceptable, as has truly taught us. From all which it will fol-Kirks to which those ignorant Souls do join themig, then they receive Error instead of Truth; (if id to receive it at all) and supposing those Kirks to Men receive Truth upon a wrong Foundation; in ver inquire whether they be right or wrong, they

as the Apostle directs, whether they be in the Faith ntent themselves with the Faith they have, because of their Fathers and Grandfathers, and because it the Church, into which they were baptized, and ere brought up from their Cradles.

by Scriptures and right Reason teaches, that whosoe Religion upon this Foot, and not on the Foot of re

CI

pec Gree

1 0

Arin

bein

Doct r

d by

Perl

Pro

rine v

ted in ptally.

ch bei

Doct

ions v

in th

It Sta

that i

miel v

nt the

aty to

as alfo

❽

a divine Revelation, so that it should be an Ast of the Choice, as that to which a well inform'd Understanding well persuaded Mind directs them; if they happen to be they are right only by Chance, and not from any Regular to their being either right or wrong: Which confirms the to their being either right or wrong: Which confirms the total be evident to every Man of Judgment, that if the of those Men be right, and they do receive the Truth, ceive it upon a wrong Foundation, and so it will not be of ing Service to them; for that Religion only which will wantage to any, is that which they choose themselves tounded in personal Persuasion, and not that which is them by others, and only received upon the Credit of port, or upon Trust from them, altho' it should be grant.

and the only true Religion.

On an impartial Examination, or an honest and fair shall we not see Reason to believe, that all or the this lamentable Ignorance, is owing to the Practice of ba fants? for if that Practice was deferr'd, as Tertullian advis be, and in the primitive Ages was until that time of L in Men are able to think and judge for themselves, which have a right to do, and which also they are bound to as their Thoughts should fix upon Eternity, they would a Necessity of fearthing out the TRUTH in compa veral differing Religions of Men with the holy Scriptur to which all should be brought, and applying themsel possible Diligence to all other probable means of Know ing all things with an Intention (honest in the Sight hold fast that which shall appear to them to be good, ing to get their Minds rightly persuaded, Religion wo come an Act of their own Choice; after which if in they should happen to be mistaken, their Mistake them to the Compassion of all reasonable compassiona I must believe with Mr. Abernathy, will intitle them Compassion too; but to take up Religion upon Trust on the Recommendation of Father or Mother, or this learned Man or number of learned Men, without sit selves by trying and proving from the Word of Go chiefly, not flighting or neglecting any other probi Knowledge, and so determining themselves in their such a fair Tryal and firm persuasion of their Min take up Religion upon Trust without thus doing, is

He that is wise shall be wise for himself, he is a M and will wisely consider, and thereby will yet become if any Man be otherwise, and will not think for him for himself, but will refer himself to and be detent of another, such a Man must remain in inexcusable Ignorance, and it will not be in the wife to relieve him.

f the

ndin

to b confi

uth,

be of will be

ch is d

lit of

be gran

nd fair

the m madvis ne of L es, which

und to

ey would

Scriptur

of Know

e Sight

e good,

gion wou

Miffake !

mpaffiona

le them

pon Truft er, or this

ithout fat

rd of Go

her probi

s in their

their Min

doing, is

he is a M ill yet beco

nk for him

nd be dete

remain in

be in the

have I shewn in sundry particulars the Inconveniencies inthe Practice of baptizing Infants doth lead Christian ities, to which I may add that it is a Practice which Pedobaptists inconsistent with themselves, for Proof of further argue against it.

Argument the Twentieth.

oftrine which leads Christian Communities into an absosistency with themselves, cannot be sound Dostrine: Dostrine of Intant's Baptism dorn lead Christian Comnto an absolute Inconsistency with themselves;

ing good the Minor Proposition, I further argue.

drine which being received by Christian Communities ree with other their Doctrines, is such a Doctrine as leads in absolute Inconfishency with themselves.

Octrine of Infants Baptism is such a Doctrine, as being Christian Communities, will not agree with their other pecially in Reference to the Kirk of Scotland:

of the Minor of this last Argument, I further argue, firine which being received by the Kirk of Scotland, to with her Doctrine of final Perseverance, is such a Docteing received by her, will not agree with her other Doctrine of Infant's Baptism is such a Doctrine, which d by the Kirk of Scotland, will not agree with her Doc-Perseverance—Therefore &c.

Proposition of this last Argument may thus be made tine which teaches that such Persons who are regeneted into Christ, and interested in the Covenant of stally and finally fall away from that State, is such a th being received by the Kirk of Scatland, will not a-Doctrine of final Perseverance.

chrine of Infant's Baptism is such a Doctrine as teaches sons who are regenerated, ingrasted into Christ, and in the Covenant of Grace, can totally and finally fall at State:—Therefore &c. as was to be proved; and that it leads Christian Communities into an Inconsist-mselves, and consequently cannot be sound Doctrine. In the Reason of this Charge may fairly appear, it is at the Reason of this Charge may fairly appear, it is at the Reason of this Charge may fairly appear, it is at the Reason of the Kirk of Scotland's Doctrine of final at also her Doctrine of Infant's Baptism; that both diogether, the Inconsistency may discover it self.

I :

Their Doctrine of final Perseverance must be supposed it's Connection with their Doctrines of Redemption, effects ing, Juftification and Sanctification; and all must stand in greement with their Doctrine of Election; and as their Doc Election is, that God hath predestinated a Number of M verlasting Life, and that this Number is so certain and defini it can neither be increas'd nor diminished; that this Nu redeemed by Christ, effectualy called, justified, adopted, fa and faved, is regenerated, bath a new Heart and Spirit of them, for God having fore ordain'd them to eternal Life, them (pursuant to a Covenant of Grace) his holy Spirit them willing and able to believe; fo that they being fallen are redeemed by Christ, are effectually called to Faith in Ch by the almighty Power determined to that which is go through which Power they are kept, fo that they neither can fall away totally and finally from that State of Gra shall certainly persevere therein to the End and be eternal And further they teach that none are redeemed, effectually justified, adopted, fanctified and faved, but the Elect on I take to be the Kirk of Scotland's Doctrine of Election, feverance &c. and her Doctrine of Infant's Baptilm, or her of Baptism in the General is, that it is not only a Sign, of ingrafting into Christ, of Regeneration, and a partition Benefits of the Covenant of Grace.

Now fince Baptism is such a Sign and Seal as here re it must thence be inferred, that Infants baptized are ingredient, are regenerated &c. And since their Dostrine of severance is, that all those who are ingrasted into Christ regenerated and are Partakers of the Benefits of the Grace, shall certainly persevere to the End, and be eterm it will follow (according to my way of thinking) that those Infants to whom Baptism was administred, did after from that State of Grace, in which their Baptism sup (as Multitudes of them have certainly done) and did a State of Wickedness to the End of their Lives, the Kirk of Scotland's Dostrine of Infant's Baptism is income her Dostrine of final Perseverance, and consequently for it is supposed that her Dostrine of final Perseverance this to be sure is supposed by them, how much Reserver.

10

ng (

g ii

ther

Fai

confi

G

Ptifo le gi les w

The

then

ne gi ht, a tche

edot

Inte

arge

offib

dwe

and others may have to think the Contrary.

72371 1

But again it may be observed that as the Kirk of Strine of Infants Baptism is inconsistent with her Doctrine Perseverance so it is also inconsistent with her Doctrine it self, consequently false, as will further appear from ing Argment.

That Doctrine of the Kirk of Scotland which is inco her Doctrine of Baptism, is a Doctrine which make Scotland inconsistent with her self.

Kirk of Scotland's Doctrine of Infant's Baptifm, is inconthe Kirk of Scotland's Doctrine of Baptismnce of the Minor Proposition, I further argue.

offine of the Kirk of Scotland which faith, any Person. visible Church hath a Right to Baptism, before Profession n, and Obedience to Christ, is inconfistent with the Kirk Doctine of Baptism.

Kirk of Scotland's Doctrine of Infants Baptism doth fave Persons out of the visible Church, hath a Right to Bapa Profession of Faith in, and Obedience to Christ-&. as was to be proved; and which proves that her Infant's Baptilm doth lead her into an Inconfiftency for Proposition is made good by the words of the Kirk, inher larger and shorter Catechize, in which they lay, ut of the visible Church are to be baptized until a Proaith in, and Obedience to Christ, and tho' they say in ace and even in the same Breath, that those who are n of either both, or but one of them Believers are with-nant, and so have a Right to Baptism; yet will not these Words secure the Confistency, since in the Question bey that the End for which Baptism is administer'd, is y baptiz'd be folemnly admitted into the vifible Church, y shews they were out of the visible Church, until by y were folemnly admitted into it : Confequently feeing tof the visible Church at the time of their Birth, by g Question they ought not to be baptiz'd, until Proth and Obedience to Chrift, and fo the additional words gin Covenant, and their having a Right on that Ac-ignificant, as wanting Power to preserve the Confistherefore to fay that they have a Right, without a Faith and Obedience, is to fay and unfay, and make confistent with her self.

faith that none out of the visible Church hath a ptilm, until a Profession of Faith in, and Obedience e gives us her Doctrine of Baptism in which she is es with the holy Scriptures, and the primitive Churchthe faith that those who are Infants of either both, them believers are in Covenant, and so have a Right, le gives us her Doctrine of Infant's Baptism, in which ht, as neither agreeing with the holy Scriptures, the iches, nor with her own felf, which I could wish she edobaptists would consider.

Intent the Inconfiftency with which the Kirk of Scate arged, may most fully and clearly evidence it self, offible the Truth as in the Lord Jesus may be discodwell a little on some necessary Remarks on this

onfed effectu tand in eir Do r of M d defini this Nu pted, la pirit a I Life, Spirit ! ng fallen irh in Ch ich is go neither

e of Gn e eternal effectually Elect only lection, l m, or her a Sign, la partaki

s here it d are ingr Strine of nto Chrift of the Co d be eterna ing) that d, did after ptilm fup) and did Lives, the n is inconf fequently fa ouch Real Kirk of S her Dott er Doftrine appear from feverance!

hich is inco which make Part of the Catechize viz. "Infants descending from Pare or both or but one of them professing Faith in Christ dience to him, are in that Respect within the Covenant

" be baptized.

I own my self persuaded that the Nation of Scotland a that of England and Ireland a fords a great Number of very Men, and Men of very great and examplary Piety who Lord Jesus Christ in Sincerity, and are not wilfully the A of Truth; but I must at the same time believe, that the Men, and liable to mistakes as are the rest of their Fellow So that not one of them has any just Reason to be displet the Man, who shall try their Doctrines and attempt to their supposed Mistakes, wherefore I hope the following will be candidly considered.

In this Position several things may be worth our Observed on which some Thoughts being spent will probably see Light into the grand Question.

First, this Conclusion doth most naturally flow from miles, viz. that those Infants whose Parents are neither Believers, are not in Covenant and so have no Right to which seems to bear very hard upon the innocent Infant lieving Parents, since it must be granted it was none of their Parents believed not; wherefore supposing that an all has any Right (which in truth cannot be supposed generously be given to them all, and not one of them she prived for the Fault of the Parents, which poor ham

hi ul nd of wh nd ifai

inc afo

p

20 kn

on will

U

hey

0 81

e In

ghe

int,

le is

wants the Power to prevent.

Secondly, we will suppose that Infants do descend for who are believers, so far as to make a Profession of the Faith, and do also lead a sober godly Life as to their were never by Baptism made Members of the vish when the shorter Catechize is consider'd upon this feems to be explanatory of the larger, it must be com the Infants of fuch Parents (notwithstanding their ! Faith and orderly conversation) have no Right to B cause they are no Members of the visible Church, for the shorter Catechize are, " that the Infants of the MEMBERS of the visible Church are to be bapt I think is still hard, fince it is none of the Infant's Fau Parents are not Members; for I must account it very to think that the Unbelief or Disobedience of Parent the Promises of God of none Effect to their Children them of any Interest in those Promises, and must in Opinion, that this Article of the Kirk of Scotland do different Representation of a merciful and just Go which he is pleas'd to give of himself, whose Throne with Justice, and whose tender Mercies are over all hi that he will not make an innocent Infant answerable of it's ungodly Parents.

m Pare Christ: covenant of very ety who y the A chat the Fellow oe disple

bably fur

tempt to

ollowing

ow from re neithe Right to ent Infant
none of ng that an luppoled
f them sho poor harn descend for

Tion of th s to their the vibb pon this ! ift be con g their P light to B nurch, for ints of the to be bapt nfant's Fau int it very of Parents ir Children nd must th Scotland do d just Go ofe Throne

e over all hi

answerable

let us further suppose that Infants do descend from ho are Members of the visible Church, but in their way re as bad as any on this Side Hell; the Catechize gives not a Right to Baptism, because they are Members of the nurch, altho' it refuses that Privilege to such as are the schole who are no Members, tho' professing Faith in divery sober in their Conversations, and only because not are no Members. Amazingly strange I that the Insper Professors, who are not Members of the visible hall be without an Interest in the Covenant, when the prophane Members shall be allowed that Interest: This be the Kirk's Doctrine, but I will not advise any of the sto believe it, on the contrary my Advice to them is, will solidly consider, and judge righteous Judgment.

o do both profess Faith in Christ, and are Members of Church, and to outward appearance do behave themey ought to do, but before God are the vilest Hipo-the Heavens; if the Question be put, are those Invenant? and have they a Right to Baptism? the Catechize his Doctrine? Shall we not rather choose to defire to be om it? as a Doctrine so contrary to what was preach'd er the Conduct of an unerring Spirit, and so such, as on hing we can have a more safe Dependance. If the Pedould agree in Opinion with me in this, that the Kirk of nder a Mistake as to this Particular, and will own that of fuch Hipocritical Parents are not in Covenant with a whose teaching is, that if the Root be holy, so are the nd that the Hipocritical Profession made by Parents, fants no Right to Baptism more than what the Infants ind have; may I not then justly hope, that upon the alon, they will also agree with me in Opinion, that possible for the wifest Men on Earth to know who are and who not, fince it is one of God's incommunicable know the Heart of Man, and that consequently the on Earth cannot tell, what Infants have a Right to what have not.

will now suppose that Infants do descend from Parents Unbelievers at the time of their Birth, but that one hey are convinced of Truth, are converted and do be not the visible Church; if it be made a Question, Infants be in Covenant according to the Catechize, to Baptism? Perhaps the Pedobaptists deliberation, will come to this Conclusion; that the Catechize the Case and therefore cannot determine the Answer, is thus stated, the Infant at the time of it's Birth of the visible Church, and had neither of it's Parents the considered the Infant according to the first Part of the Answer in the Catechize ought not to be baptiz'd un fession of Faith in and Obedience to Christ: But if it be tho' the Child had no Right at the Time of its Birth, because its Parents were not then Beleivers nor Church see that one Month after when the Parents became such, it had then a Right upon the Foot of their Faith and Church bership; then it will follow that the first Part of the Answership; then it will follow that the first Part of the Answership it must run thus, None out of the visible Church should be based Profession of Faith and Obedience—Except the Children of such as who are both or but one of them in the visible Church, and the neither of them Members at the time of their Child's Birth; powhat time soever they do believe and become Members, they then Children into Covenant along with them, and give them a Right

the

❽

Well then I will suppose (but God forbid I should grant Truth lies here, yet am I now at as great a Loss as everto faction to my Mind upon this necessary Inquiry, how la what Age of the Child the Parent's Faith shall retain it to bring it into Covenant and give it a Right to Baptila then suppose the Child to be thirteen Years of Age (h Ishmael when he was circumciz'd) before both or either rents believe and become Members of the visible Chun the Question is whether the Faith of it's Parents ath Life doth bring it into Governant, and give it a Right to it it be faid it doth, then am I utterly at a Loss again tok Occasion there is for that Faith and Obedience mention first Part of the Answer in the Catechize, or the first gen fince the Child can at any Age of Life plead it's Interest venant and Right to Baptism upon the Foot of it's Pan withour any fuch Personal Profession and Obedience: N nor also plead his Right upon the Foot of his great Gn Faith, fince it must be granted that in Reference to the of Promise which God made with Abraham and his Se them the Land of Canaan, to which Covenant Circumo fix'd as a Token and a Seal of the Righteousness of dren and their great Grandchildren's Grandchildren Ages (until his promised Seed should come) an low Covenant and a Right to Circumcifion, which was a fo that his great Grandchildren could sa y many hundred Abraham was one and he inherited the I, and, but we at the Land is given to us for an Inheritance. Ezek. 33.4 thing be more clear than this, O are Pedobaptills Truth lies here, then the first general Rule in the Ca be thrown away, since a personal Profession of Faith in ence to Christ is so manifestly unnecessity; in regard? any time of Life plead his Interest in the Covenant, and to any supposed Token or Seal of it, upon the Foot Grandfathers Faith, tho' above a Thousand Year b born.

lit.

ho

vii

n, er

nal w ifte

t th y v

e w

me

le o

race

Seco.

s ex

Wil

peradventure you may tell me, that notwithflanding Abraith interested his great Grandchildren in the Covenant, them a Right to Circumcifion through fo many Geneyet that we must not run the Parallel between him and fren, and Believers and their Children fo far ; but fhould nclude, that now under the Gospel, Children are in Covehave a Right to Baptilm, only upon the Account of their te Parents Faith, and that not longer then until they are nderstand and make a Profession of Faith for themselves: f a Child be as old as Ishmael before his Parents become of the vifible Church, his Baptifm muft be deferr'd, until Profession of Faith in, and Obedience to Christ: Well re Pedobaptists! See what you are brought to now! for the Case to stand thus, then it must follow that the set of the Answer in the Catechize is a general Rule to ere is an Exception, and fo it appears in this Light : The those who are Members of the visible Church are to be baptized as are capable to make a Profession of Faith for themselves. ch consider'd, it will appear impossible to reconcile the Scotland with her self, I say to reconcile her Doctrine of stilm with her Doctrine of Baptism, without a Multitude nentary Words or Sentences as [that is] or [the meaning hout this or the other Exception:

I will now suppose that Children do descend from Paare Believers and Members of the visible Church, and Covenant; shall I not be led into a just Surprize to find it of Scotland is further inconsistent with her self upon fition, and if fuch Inconfishency shall fairly and honestly ty not all Men be aftonish'd to observe, that a Confession hould be compos'd by an Assembly of Learned and Invines, and a Catechize upon that Confession, which ain a Parliamentary Sanction, and meet with National n, and should be held in the highest Estimation by a er of learned Men in two other Nations, and that not fonal and private Capacities, but also in their Synodical naking it a Test of Orthodoxy, accounting Men unfound who should refuse to subscribe to it as such, while istencies should for so long a Time escape their Obsert that the Kirk of Scotland is justly chargeable with this y will yet be further manifest, when we compare her with another Part of her Catechize, where treating me Subject, instructing her Catecumens upon the Sele of her Confession, she conveys her Notion of the Co-ray of Question and Answer, thus: Q. Who was the race made with? A. The Covenant of Grace was made with second Adam, and in bim with all the ELECT as bis with a Defire to find out Truth upon those two dif-

of

z'd un

Birth, Burch Mourch Mo Cluch, the Church Mo Church the Actu

x ception

I be bapta

n of such cb, and th

Birth;

a Right and grant a ever to how lo how lo retain it o Baptila f Age (th ble Chun ents at the Right to again to ke the mention the first gen

to Interest
f it's Pare

great Grande to the order of the Circumcia afness of h his great dchildren de) an Int h was a To hundred but we are

Ezek. 33. 24 lobaptists! in the Ca of Faith in in regarda ovenant, an n the Foot nd Years be terent and differing Places of the Catechize, and upon our we shall see what strange Dostrine we are surnish'd with, impossible it is to reconcile the Kirk with her self, special her Dostrine of Election is taken into the Account; so be evident that she not only implicitly affirms the Salvato Believers and their natural Seed, but also the universal sof all Mankind, provided that be granted which I suppose the salvatory of all Mankind, provided that be granted which I suppose the salvatory of th will deny, viz. that Adam was a Believer.

Where a Man shall fet himself to search for Truth, in this Catechife upon this fingle Question, Who was the of Grace made with? if he takes the Answer from that h Catechize, where speaking of Infants Right to Baptiful fwer is, The Covenant of Grace was made with Believers and is with them and their natural Seed: If the Answer be taken Part of the Catechize which ralates to the Seventh An the Answer will be, The Covenant of Grace was made with in him with all the ELECT as kis Seed, and if Truth for upon those Questions, shall all the Elect be faved! any but the Elect be faved? The Answers which the and Catechize gives to those Questions are, All the Elet In and none shall be faved but the Elect. Now admitting all fwers to be right, and as before that Adam was a Belien will follow that all Mankind must be saved, as will an fuch Reasoning, as into which those Answers necessian as thus.

Adam was a Believer, therefore the Covenant was him and his Seed.

The Covenant was made with the Elect, and fince it with Adam and his Seed, we thence conclude that M Seed are the Elect of God.

All the Elect shall be saved, Adam and his Seed are wherefore evident, Adam and his Seed shall be saved trine! and it plainly shews us that some one or other Iwers must be falle, from whence so great an Abiu and therefore it is the Duty of the Pedobaptifts to P Answer which is false, and purge the Catechize of should be fairly cast, I know on what Part the Los And furely all will own that those several differing Answers cannot be all true; consequently cannot be less the [that is] and [the meaning is] may help us it is true was a Believer, and as fuch the Covenant " him and his natural Seed, and so it is likewise mad Believers and their Seed, but not with all their of them only as belong to the Election of God: Me To the [that is] and [the meaning is] has reconcild her felf, and feeing it is fo, O ye Pedobaptifts! your Duty, to which you have fairly brought your fel the baptizing of Infants until you can find out those according to your own Sentiments have a Right to Bi nd nd ely d, a of i e ba

[N

at th

1 ey I

with on, \ ing in on & niwer the currently be, in it to I ents.

most j d in t ve they self in apriz'd arely. I are in nitted ithout

ptism to reconcil and the will ow th.

can pick out of the natural Seed of Believers those In do belong to the Election of God, because none but such venant. I may truly fay I have thought of this and other Arti-& Kirk of Scotland with a closer attention than many of s have done, I hope those who are reproachfully call'd Men are taking that Kirk's Articles into Confideration, Men to do; and that the old and true Light will break Obscurity, from such their Considerations I am well ey are irreconcilable with themselves in several of their I could plainly demonstrate, but I have now nothing to my thing but what concerns the present Question, in nd it so very hard to bring them to bear with themselves nd ands and the [that is] and [the meaning is] will but ely do, and may I not say, when what is further offer'd d, neither is nor ands will do, for that it is not possible of Man to reconcile them with themselves; for let us ve that in the first Part of their Answer to the Question techize they say, that none out of the visible Church e baptized until they profess Faith in, and Obedience [None out of the visible Church] Surely these words at there are some in the visible Church who have a Right without such Profession and Obedience, and if we make on, Who are those who are in the visible Church? and ing in the visible Church have a Right to Baptism withon & though it may be the Catechize will not furnish ofwer to this Question in express Words, yet it may be the ulual modern Method of Deduction, that is, by e, in it's Kind much like unto those Consequences which currently among the Pedobaptists, and so the Answer bly be, those Persons who are in the visible Church and at to Baptism without Profession, are the Infants of beents. Mighty well, and are the Infants of believing eed in the visible Church? But which way in all the they get in? By what Gate or Door of Entrance? most most justly assonishing ! There's no help for it, in d in they must be; but doth the Kirk of Scotland re they're in? then how in the World can she be reconfelf in the 28th Article of her Confession, where she ne End for which Baptifm was instituted was, that aptiz'd might be solemnly admitted into the visible rely. I take this Matter right, that the Kirk here teachare in the visible Church until by Baptism they are pitted into it : How then got the Infants of believing ithout Baptism, and so as that they should have a ptism by vertue of their being in ? If any Man in the econcile those two Kirks together, that is, the Kirk nd the Kirk of Scotland, alias the Kirk of Scotland with will own he has got an Art which I am at present unght to Bi th.

cial so atto

, in the at Pa tifm.

end th kenf h Ar with Croth red? the (Elett for Believe vill ap ceffari

Was I fince it hat Ad

eed are faved other n Ablu ts to P hize of the Lor differing not be n help us, enant wa vise made their Se concild tifts! it! your fel

For ought I know some ingenious Head-piece who ha educated in Glascow or Edinburgh may reconcile those two Sale together, by bringing in, in proper Place [that is] and the of the Kirk of Scotland is in the Article of her Confession, End for which Baptism was instituted is, that all those out of the visible Church should by it be solemuly admit it; but the Infants of believing Parents who by vertue Parents Faith were in Covenant, and fo in the visible Chi fore Baptilm, they are out of the Case, and the Kirk dother that one End for which Baptism was instituted, was the should by it be solemnly admitted into it. Well then, Case stand thus, and so Infants are in the visible Chun that without Baptism; what Occasion then is there for the defign of which is to bring them in that are out, inthe of Indifferency then, let them stay in and keep Possession as they can, for we may be fure of this, that if there bea tian Discipline or Gospel Order in that Church in which in fix or feven Years time they must be turn'd out again, they grow up and begin to swear and curse and break the Day, and play such other Tricks as are not to be suffer Members of the vifible Church, and when they are turn their bad way of living, then by the Rule of the Kirki techize, being out of the visible Church they will have a Baptilm until they make a profession of their Faith in dience to Christ; if the Pedobaptists will walk accord Rule, and keep Infants unbaptiz'd until they make ho themselves, then all will be well, but if they will not con this but will continue their Practice of baptizing Infants, be everlastingly inconfishent with themselves, and the of Pedobaptism will be eternally contrary to the Scriptur of Baptilm.

When the Kirk of Scotland teacheth that none out of Church hath a Right to Baptism until a Profession Chrift, the teacheth the way of God in Truth, and h therein agrees with the holy Scriptures and the Sentime Church of Christ in the first and purest Ages of the as Bishop Beveridge has well observ'd, the very Postelli without the Profession of him, will give no Man a Right But when the Kirk teaches that the Infants of Belle Covenant and so have a Right, she herein advances to which the Apostles were intire Strangers, and affer The will never be able to prove by any part of din I have turn'd to the several Texts of Scripture who me to in their Catechize, and have carefully confide and am very confident that not one of them do expe trine as they teach, neither contain it fo as that by quence it may be deduced from thence, as for Gr Text on which I observe the Pedobaptists lay no far

rd Je

14, wh

15, wh

16, 39

16, 39

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

16, 40

er. 30

Son, 11

Son of Mou

a

tha

le d eft

rest

ie 7

to

les to he l

Famnise.

Flan

Nais the

h the

ather

s his

icotal e m n, th

mit

tue

Chu

th o

is th hen,

Chur

for B

effion

e bear which

ain, W eak th

(uffer

e turn

Kirk I

nave m

th in accord

ke Pro

not cot

Infants,

nd the

Scriptur

fession of and h

Sentime

of the G

Poffeli

a Right of Belie

advances

and affert

t of divid

rure which do expre

s that by

s for Gen

ay no fm

peaks of a Covenant which God made with Abraham and D, I can with the greatest Freedom of Mind affirm that t without great Injustice to the Text, and to the Apostle divine Expositor of it, be concluded that Mofes in that th give any Account of any Covenant made by God with and his NATURAL SEED, except only his Covenant le to give them the Land of Canaan for a worldly Inheriwhich Covenant I prefume the Kirk of Scotland will not any of her Children has an Interest further than as on fair shall appear to be a natural Descendant from Abraham ; any other Covenant of which Mofes may be supposed to that Chapter, it must be accounted a spiritual Covenant fe of Golpel Bleffings, and the Heavenly Canaan, as an eof to him and his SPIRITUAL SEED, in which Covehiteral Seed simply confider'd as his natural Seed is not rested. John the Baptist most evidently preaches this Docour Father, and fo plead your Interest in the Covenant to Baptilm on that Account, for I affure you that God is able es toraife up Children to Abraham, even of the Gentiles through he Lord Jesus, who thereby becomes his Spiritual Seed Family foever they be, and Heirs with him of the nife. Spiritual Children who are Allegorically figured Hanc, who was a Child of Promise, and Typified all, Nations throughout all Time should imbrace the Son is the promised Seed of Abraham, and should be found n the well pleasing Steps of Abrabam's Faith, which was ble to God, as that on the Account thereof, he made ather of the Faithful, and bestowed upon him all true is his Spiriual Seed.

ed Jesus in the 8th of John preaches this same Doctrine u, who said ver. 33. We are Abraham's Seed. I know saith ver. 37. Ye are Abraham's Seed, that is, Abraham's natural per. 39. If ye were Abraham's Children, that is, Abraham's Spiriren, you would do the Works of Abraham, And ver. 44. You ather the Devil. This Doctrine is that of which the Chrifshould be very tender because it is that which summeins the whole Truth of the Gospel. Come ye Pedobapour Eyes with me on Rom. 9. 8. 9. and there learn that ot all Ifrael which were of Ifrael, neither because they latural Seed of Abraham, were they his Children, for his Seed was called, that is, they which are the Chil-Flesh, these are not the Children of God, but the the Promise are counted for the Seed, hence Gal. 4. 28. rethren as Isaac was, are the Children of the Promise. er. 30. what faith the Scripture? Caft out the Bond Wo-Son, that is, the natural Seed whereof Isomael was a Fi-Son of the Bond Woman shall not be Heir with the Son of the Mount Sion the true Gospel Church, or Spiritual Je.

rufalem, sufalem, which is the Mother of all true Believers, and the Sion Sarab fimbolized, as Agar did Monnt Sinai, a Mountainin where the natural Seed received the Law, under which the in Bondage, and from which Bondage they refused to be made to be

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, the promised Seed bam is the clearest Revelation which the great God hath Man, by which Life and Immortality are brought to Life this Gospel is so full of this Doctrine, that true Believen not their natural Seed are intitul'd to all the Promifes Covenant; that upon the Authority thereof I can bold the Covenant of Promise whereof Moses speaks in the 17th was a Spiritual Covenant, and made with Abrabam's Spirit only: I refer my felf to, and am willing to be determine Apostle Paul in the 4th and 9th of the Romans, and the 3da the Galatians, which will bring to this Conclusion, that foning of the Kirk of Scotland, and all other the Pedon most unnatural and unreasonable, in deducing an Inter lievers natural Seed, from that Interest which Abrahami Seed had in that Covenant of Promise which God made as the Heir of the World, and Father of the Faithful; a add further, that for them to continue the Practice tizing Infants, for which there is no manner of New thereby framing a Gospel Church of their natural Seed ration, which alone must be composed of Spiritual Seed by ration, viz. true Believers in Christ, they are crecting ale er of Babel whose Top will never reach the Heavens,

As the first Baptiff zealously preach'd the necessity ration, and our bleffed Redeemer also did the same, as holy Apostles, who perpetually press for a Spiritual Wo constantly shew that all Religious and Acceptable founded in a perional Perfuation and Exercise of the Min Baptifts do ever fince hold themselves oblig'd to be of this very tender Point; and as God hath made ! Churches the Pillar and Ground of this great Truth alone it has hitherto been supported, they believe it cumbent Duty, from a Regard to the Glory of God of their Fellow Creatures, to contend earnestly for that the Ax of divine Justice is laid to the Root of the fuch Trees as are but just peeping above Ground, w fon of their tender Age, are not able to bring forth or bad, (fuch as are little Infants) but to the Root of as are well grown and able to bring forth good for bring forth Fruits meet for Repentance ; if fuch will they are able to do, they shall be justly hewn down the Fire. I might enlarge very much upon this Subje next and last Argument hath a further Relation to offer'd, I shall content my self and pass on.

My Reader may observe, I have advanced sevent to shew the ill Consequences attending the Doctrine thoi the

y, in

qui ch

ume

om

ghe

7, t

litel

pel: | fubi | | bmitte

Arg trine v copher oftrine of

ke goo

drine w methin all the octrine octrine

of th

the north of

ing Infants, and the Inconveniencies into which it leads Commuities, 28, hat it leads them into Confusion, putting it out of their ith any tollerable Certainty to know, whether feveral of ly, it puts them under a necessity of casting away Chris-

y, it leads them into an absolute Inconfishency with y, it puts them under a Temptation to take up their Sa-in what was done for them in Infancy, without the nequiry whether they be right or wrong.

ch I heartily wish may be consider'd, as also I would ments may be, which are taken. om the Infant's Inability to perform a Covenant or Vow, the to be made at Baptism. , thole Arguments which are taken from the useleffness little Infants. thole taken from the want of holy Scripture to those taken from the Contrariety thereof to the those taken from it's being against the Opinion and the primitive Christians, in the earliest and purest Ages pel: And now I shall only add one Argument more, and submit the whole to the Chance or Lot, to which it bmitted.

Argument the Twenty First.

firine which is in direct Contradiction to the Doctrine ophets and all the Apostles, is very unfound Doctrine. Postrine of Infants Baptism, is in direct Contradiction rine of all the Prophets and all the Apostles:-

ke good the Minor Proposition, I further argue.

trine which makes Regeneration, or the new Birth, to mething short of true Conversion, is contrary to the all the Prophets and all the Apostles.

offrine of Infants Baptism, doth make Regeneration, irth to confift in something short of true Conversion:

of the Minor of this last Argument, I further argues ine which puts the great and wonderful work of Rethe new Creation of Man, but nine Months from a Doctrine which makes Regeneration to confist in et of true Conversion.

But

hin the man he do not be to the coldinate of the coldinat hat u edoba Inten bam's made 11; 10

2 Stice Nece Seed Seed by ig a leo ens. effity 0 ne, 25 0 wal Wo able O the Min to be t made ! t Truth lieve it of Goo tly for i e of the und, w ing forth Root good Fr ch will n down his Subject ation to c'd feven Doctrine

Wil

d ( ent

tife eca ner

in d,

the

emin

Goo

hey p o wh

he La

er, b effed

of g ve are

that om we

e Eye

perfec

be He

of the tany

putting us, w e, th ntrar

he a

alwa

ly to

But the Doctrine of Infants Baptilm doth put the great derful Work of Regeneration or the new Creation of nine Months from Generation :- Therefore &c. as wasto and which doth most manifestly prove, that Infants are nerated by Baptism, no nor at the time of their Bapus Doctrine of Infants Baptism doth falsly teach, and is the direct Contradiction to the Doctrine of all the Prophe the Apostles.

The Church of England and Ireland in the 27th of the faith, " Water Baptism is not only a Sign of Profession an of Difference, whereby Christian Men are discern'ds that be not Christned; but it is also a Sign of Regens the new Birth, whereby as by an Instrument, they the Baptism RIGHTLY, are grafted into the Church; to of the Remission of Sins, and our Adoption; to bet

"God by the holy Ghoft, are visibly Sign'd and Seal'd " CONFIRMED, and Grace increased by Vertue to God.

The Kirk of Scotland in her 28th Article faith, "Bu Sacrament of the new Testament, ordain'd by Jesus only for the salemn Admission of the Party baptized visible Church, but also to be unto him, a Sign and S "Covenant of Grace; of his ingrafting into Christ; of

tion and Remission of Sins; and of his giving up through the Lord Jesus Christ; to walk in Newnel which Sacrament is by Christ's own Appointment, told " in the Christian Church to the end of the World.

To the Truth of this Article of the Churches of Engli and Scotland (believing we take their Sense of Words are called Anabaptifts, can chearfully give our Conlect; persuaded it is agreeable to the Gospel, but must atthe declare, and in behalf of Truth infift upon it, that it and Practice of baptizing Infants, is most demonstrably to it; as being what cannot agree with the Delcriptor nition, which both Kirks do give of Baptisin in this Am

Observe the Church of England saith, and she faith m it when RIGHTLY received, Faith is CONFIRM plainly supposeth the Party baptized should have ! it is impossible Faith should be confirm'd, where no

Secondly, they lay it is a Sign of Profession; but he not be a Sign of Profession in those, who neither do any Profession; which makes it evident, that the M this Article gives of Baptilm cannot answer to little may to fuch as are personal Believers, or who believing.

The Kirk of Scotland faith, that Baptism is a Sign giving up unto God, which supposes that the Person give himself up to God, through our Lord Jesus O true, but cannot answer to an Infant; in regard it is not able to de.

eat

of l to be pull s the

pher

the

on an

egena ey tha i ; the o bet

Seal'd

ertue

" Ba

efus G

aptized

and S

ft; of

ng up i

Vewnell

ni, to be rld.

of Engla

Words

Confent;

A at the

that th

nftrably

)elcripm

this Art

faith m

NFIRM have Fai

ere no

5 but la

ner do no t the do

to little

Who an

s a Signa

Perfort

Jefus Ch

efly I observe, that both Kirks do agree in this, that Bapsign of Regeneration, which supposes that the Party bapher regenerated by it, or regenerated when he receives it; se I am sure that it cannot be a Sign of Regeneration to i for first, Baptism doth not regenerate any: Secondly, any regenerated in Infancy, as I shall endeavour yet surke appear, and therefore must conclude, that the Doc-Practice of baptizing Infants, will not answer to the Ac-Article gives of Baptism.

erstand the Popish Pedobaptists Notion rightly, they conthe Infant is regenerated by Baptism; and some Protestaptists seem to me to run into the same way of thinking;
hers less mistaken in Judgment, will not have it that generates the Infant, but that the Holy Ghost regeneBaptism. If the differing Parties were to debate this teen themselves, perhaps that Debate would entertain with as nice Distinctions, as accompany the Arguments and Con-Substantiation.

ent Christians, in the first Ages of the Gospel, call'd tism the Laver of Regeneration, and rightly they so ecause they supposed the Persons they baptized were nerated, in that the Sign of Regeneration appeared in in that Profession which they made of Repentance d, and of their Faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, and they not only consented to be baptized, but defired it, emn Vow or Covenant with God and his Church, to Godly Life, which would well become the Gospel to hey promised Subjection.

o who are call'd Anabaptists, do look upon Water Baphe Laver of Regeneration still, because we admit none er, but such who give us the Signs of Regeneration, sessed Repentance and Faith, and their Promises which of good Behaviour.

we are sometimes mistaken (even as were the Apostles at hat good Opinion we conceive of the Sincerity of the om we give this Sacrament, for we cannot look other, the Eyes of Men, nor can we judge of Persons, but as perfect Understanding of Men; for we pretend not the Hearts of our Fellow Creatures, to see that inward cost they give us the outward Signs.

trany time impos'd upon by any Person who disguises putting on a Mask of Religion, conceals his Hypocrify us, whilst he seems to be what he realy is not; we e, that Water Baptism will do such a Man no good; postrary it will make his Sin the greater, for the he all knowing God he cannot deceive. In short, always is, that Water Baptism is the Laver of Rely to those who are truly regenerated; but that it is not so to fuch, who want that inward Grace whereof the Kirks of England and Scotland do say, it is an ou vifible Sign.

It is true we always say, it is an outward Sign of Rest those who are come to the Exercise of their Rest capable of being regenerated; but that little Infants in want of the natural Understanding or the use of Rest capable of being regenerated, and that therefore neither tism or any thing else be a Sign of Regeneration in the

We may further observe, that as Baptism among was called the Laver of Regeneration, fo also it was a nation, not because Baptism it felf doth illuminate the ! ing; but because it was supposed, that the Persons wen ed who fought for Baptilm, and therefore Baptilm their Illumination: To this Purpole Dr. Barlow Bp. of I am, (faith he) " that in the first Ages they were fir and then Illuminati; that is, they were first Catechin Baptized; which shews, that in the Opinion of this the antients look'd upon Baptism as Illuminati, and to as good Reason as they accounted it the Laver of Re because it is evident, that Regeneration cannot be with nation; until the Mind be spiritually inlightned, the be regenerated; which clearly evidences this Truth fants cannot be the Subjects of Illumination, they a Subjects of Regeneration. Daniel and all

o

ma

tl

in ac

11 ual

18, he (

hen

, th

be a

veal

in ve be ng the

nally

n G

Not

n the

Apost

d is a t to Powe

s; th

ire fl

beg

Regeneration or the new Birth, is the Renovation the Change of the whole Man, the renewing of the M ment, the affections and Will; it is the Conversion the Man, to something which he was not before, and making him a new Creature; in Fine, it is the doing a way, and the making all things new, thro' the Open

Spirit of God upon the Soul.

Regeneration is the great and wonderful Work of it is a Work, in which Man is most justly required to God; a Work in which he must be a Co-worker in Man's Part, it results from the most serious and solid on of things, and such things as are the most proper Man's Meditation; such as God and Christ, Death, at the World to come, and the Salvation of the Soul for Wrath, &c.

Regeneration is a Work, in which the Mind of hard; a Work, in which the Soul is more active to there is nothing about which Man's Mind is more but the Pains of the Soul in the new Birth, being reto the Pains of a Woman in Travel; and the Strugge to come into the World from it's Mother's Womb: of Man in his Conversion are most intent upon God, and weighty Concerns of his Soul; he is now full of

ereof

n ou

of Re

Realo

nts th

Real

neithe

in the

was ca

s were

ifm w ere fin

f this

of Re

be with

, the

Truth,

f the M

version

re, and doing l

ork of

uir'd to orker wi

oft prope

Death, a Soul from

Aind of a dive the more but

e Struggi

on God,

w full of

nd, such as hath a peculiar Tendency to bring him to ng Sense of Sin, and the exceeding Sinfulness and Destitute of to the Soul, and the great and absolute Necessing it, and of entring into a Covenant with the Lord in the most solemn Manner to make himself over to him, heartily consenting to be saved upon those Terms, on ough the Lord Jesus Christ, he has made the Offers of Men.

he Crucifixion of the Flesh, with all the vile Affections thereof; in the Destruction of the Body of the Sins of the putting off the old Man with his Deeds, that is, nversation or way of living, which was according to the his World; and in the putting on the new Man, or new way of living; a living to God in Righteousness soliness.

may persuade my self that all the understanding Genh of the Church of England and Scotland, will agree with that the old Man cannot be put off, before it be put

ing plainly impossible.

nade a Question, What is the old Man? I am inclin'd all Parties will agree in this, or the like Answer; that it, ual Corruption of Man's Nature; and if it be ask'd at is, that we take up or put on this old Man, or at what he Corruptions of our Nature take hold of Mankind? hen we understand one another in Words) we shall that we do put on the old Man, when Man's Nature be ask'd, at what time it is that this Corruption of Naveal it felf, or put it felf forth in us, so as to be call'd in the Scriptural Sense of it (i. e.) the old Conversative bear the Image of the Earthly, as it stands opposed ng the Image of the Heavenly? I persuade my self all d here too, that these Corruptions of Nature doth not hally in a State of Infancy, before we know the Diffen Good and Evil. No Man puts on this old Man in Notion of putting it on, until he comes to that time n the Law gets Power over him; until he is able to the Law is and having Power, is justly requir'd to a-Apostle Paul in the 7th of the Romans seems to teach is alive without the Law, that is, fo long as he is to the Law, but when the Commandment comes, Power over him and to bind him, then Sin revives s; then Man begins to die in Sin, and the Corrupare shews it self, in his Rebellion and Disobedience at the Corruption of Man's degenerated and degenebegins to appear (tho' not criminally) in our Child-

ie ch

nce

Dri

hati

of

lth

efh

M

f w pt u atan nd i

Law

the

the

pure

egen

of (

in a beco

and

re fu

· Our

ith t

Bap

th re

afhed

ism |

in it

tion,

St. 3

₿

bood, yea even in our Infancy, and the great Adversary of a takes as early advantage of our want of Understanding a er of Refistance, as possibly he can; most vigorously and a pursuing his malicious Design against us, unweariedly ende to establish an Interest in us, while we are least account his Wiles; most follicitous to fix a lasting Friendship with Man, and engage the Corruptions of our Nature in his at to ruin our selves; and it may be observed by sad Experits a Compliance is too easily obtained, for that while we make are not aware of his dangerous Devises and mischiem tions, in our Childhood utter Strangers to God and or and to that in which our greatest Good lies: So we are taken Captives by him at his own Will, and soolishly a the Methods of our own Destruction.

This is a Doctrine, to the truth of which every confident can find an Evidence in himself, that the Devil works up norance of Mankind, as finding his Advantage therein, in much the more a Man is ignorant, by fo much the more is kept in Subjection to him; he knows that a good and works upon Man's Understanding, and he never finds the Affections, nor has any Interest in our Will, until he no our Understanding, always working with us as rational a and in regard he has in his great Mercy diffinguish dust Creatures, endowing us with excellent and noble Facult beyond what has been given to the whole Creation below most righteously expect we should use those Faculties, the end of our Creation, that as we have Reason we me cile it as becomes Men, to reason our selves into a n chearful Compliance with the Will of fo bountiful a Com our Judgment (being well inform'd) may direct our govern our Will, and determine it to the Choice of that recommends to us for our greatest Good.

Now if this be a Doctrine to which our Assentment that the Devil works upon our Ignorance, and a good and works upon our Understanding, then it must follow, Ignorance first gets Possession of us, the Understanding and Will are all corrupted, before they be renewed, what I mean by our putting on the old Man before it off.

In the Wickedness of our Lives appears the Dega our Nature, wherein we put our selves under the Down own Lusts, and suffer Sin and the Devil to tyranize our Childhood the Corruption of our Nature reveal Pride, Passion, Coveteousness, and an over forward of supposed Injuries done us, a greedy Desire of solish Play things, by which the great Enemy of our Soulsh corrupts our Affections, whilst the natural Understand feeble to withstand him, and he finds his Account the

g and m

yain

With

his B

erie

re an nd or

aret

hly a onfide

ks up

ein, for more !

and nds Pla ne take

ional 0

d us fr

Facultie

n below,

we sho

a reli

al a Cm

rect our

of that

ent mult good and follow,

Manding

newed, before

he Dega

the Domi

tyranized

forward of fooling ur Souls fi

Underftin

ccountin

tions, knowing that in Childhood, the Affections only do he Will, and that the Affections corrupted, will dispose to that which is bad ; and fo he frengthens his Interest idifh and foolish Pattions, and as we grow up more towards makes it his Bufiness to corrupt our Judgment, as knowf he can but accomplish his Defire in this, he has made rances towards the gaining his grand Defign upon us; in the Wickedness of our Conversation, arises from a corgment and carnal Affections, which never fails to hurry into fuch Words and Actions as are most disobliging to A grateful to the Devil, and most destructive to our felves. e Fountain from whence flows all the Foliy and Vanity th Youth is chargeable, fuch as Anger, Malice, Envy, nce to Parents, filthy Communication, Lying, Swearing, Drunkennels, Adultery, and all kinds of Reveilings, ute nating the whole Man from the Life of God, through the of the Mind, and the Carnallity of the Affections. these things, and whatever else may be called the Works esh, do either all or some of them, domineer over every Man, after he passes the State of Infancy, and in the which, he puts on the old Man or corrupt Conversation, pt under the Dominion of his Lust, and in Thraldom to atan; in Enmity with God, and in Rebellion against nd in this most unhappy and miferable State, he continues law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jefus, shall make him the Law of Sin and Death.

the House of our Bondage, in the Degeneration of our pure Nature, we are held as in Chains of Iron and Brass; egeneration or the new Birth through the Affistance of of God, we put off this old Man with his Deeds, and so our finful Conversation in some good Measure, and hearin a Spititual Warfare, inlifting our felves in the Service becoming his Soldiers and Swearing Allegiance to him, lving to fight under his Banner, maintaining a holy War and the World and our own Corruptions, until Sin and re subdued and brought under the Feet of Christ, the our Salvation, by whose Strength alone we can do it. ith these Qualifications, we enter the River with Christ, ramentally bury'd with him in that liquid Grave, then Baptism be to us the Laver of Regeneration; not a h regenerates Souls, but a Laver in which regenerated ashed; and in which they wash away their Sins, calling lame of the Lord. Als 2. 37. 38. and 22. 16. then will ifm be an Illumination to us; not that Baptism simply sin it felf, doth illuminate any, but will be an Evidence tion, at least an outward Sign of it. According to the St. James, Faith is made perfett by Works, and Works of o Christ are the clearest Evidences of our Faith in him, even

even as also our Love to him, exactly agreeing with the of Bafil, the great, mentioned before, viz. Faith is persently

and Baptism is founded upon Faith.

Regenerated Souls by Baptism, are planted together with in the Similitude both of his Death and Resurrection; for being covered all over, or plunged into the Element of figured forth as by a lively Emblem, the Death and I Christ; and which also Mystically figures forth the Death rial of the Corruptions of our degenerated Nature, as in his and by our being raised up out of the Water by the the Administrator, is represented not only the Resurrection Lord Jesus, but our Resurrection with him from the Sin, in which before Regeneration we were bury'd; then is figur'd forth our Refurrection with him to a new and h through Faith of the Operation of God, that as Chriff b ed from the Dead dieth no more, Death hath no more D over him, so we being risen with Christ, should seek the that are above; being once Dead, and our Lives being Christ in God, we should die no more in Sin, we should again the Foundation of Repentance from dead Works; ing once laid it, should pass on to Perfection, Col. 2, 11, 1. 2. Col. 3. I.

Having thus far proceeded. I shall hope that all the Ped who are piously inclin'd, and who lying open to Convident heartily willing to embrace the Truth as in the Lord Jeli receive it upon it's own Recommendation, and that in to it, and the Glorious Author of it; I fay, I have Hope will be persuaded to consider, what I have offer'd on this Subject of Regeneration; the Regeneration of our degent ture, without which, we vainly look for Happiness, and Confideration will incline them to believe, that little whom appears not (in a criminal Sense) the Marks racy, are not capable of Regeneration, which confids in version, and stands at a greater Distance from General their Doftrine of Infants Baptism doth put it : Moreore impossible that Baptism should be the Laver of Regen them; nor indeed can possibly be so much as a Signa ration in them, and in Regard all Parties do call it a Si neration, and of Ingrafting into Christ, and of an Into Covenant of Grace, and of Remission of Sins; there is can have a Right to it in the Sight of God, but he ! regenerated, and most certainly born from above; neithe Person a Right to it in the Sight of Men, but he in wh feen the outward Marks or Signs of Regeneration, and feem to be what the Ministers, and Church of Chrift Judgment of Christian Charity suppose them to be

I shall also hope, that where these things are careful didly weigh'd, and all Prepossessions and Prejudices in

f

the I

ted by

with

of W

Death is in his the H

the 6

; there and b

briff b

more Deek that being being l Thould Works:

the Ped Convid Lord Jefa hat in L e Hope d on this r degener ness, and at little Marks 0 onfifts in n Genera Moreovet of Regen s a Signo ll it a Sign of an Inte

there is but he wa

he in who ation, and of Christs on to be, are careful rejudices an meaning Souls will come into my Opinion, that the of Infants Baptism, which puts Regeneration but nine from Generation, and the new and second Birth but eight me the first or old Birth, is a Doctrine which makes Remote to confist in something short of true Conversion; and manifestly contrary to the Doctrines of all the Prophets, the Apostles, and that in Consequence thereof, little Innot the Subjects of Christian Baptism.

If TRUTH in these Lines do appear,

The no Man should receive it;

I have done my Duty, I am clear,

So well content, I leave it.

FINIS

Christian Laptilm. esting Soule will come into my Opinion that the Dente Baptilen, waites pure Regention orthing of Generation, and the new and fecond shorts but with mefiet or old Mirin, 'is a Dockeine which makes Rerecently in Comercing from of true Conventions and s Applies, and that in Confequence thereof, fiele for TRUTH to the Black to offer the me Alan front receive he to Low my Dory L'an day. di will ament, I bave it.